McLean Joins Public Service

Stephen H. McLean has joined Public Service Company of North Carolina, Inc. as director of personnel.

A native of Gaston County, McLean is a graduate of Gardner Webb College and the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. Prior to joining Public Service Company, he was employed 10 years with the Belmont Heritage Corporation as director of personnel.

He is currently serving as chairman of the Gaston County Employment Security Commission's Employer Advisory Committee. He and his wife Bonnie and their two children reside in Mt. Holly.

Public Service Company distributes natural gas to 162,000 customers in 81 cities, towns and communities in 26 counties ranging from the Raleigh, Durham and Chapel Hill areas in the northeast; the Concord, Statesville and Gastonia areas in the Piedmont; to the Asheville, Hendersonville and Brevard areas in the western part of the state. Public Service also participates in oil and gas exploration and production, and retails propane gas through subsidiaries of its wholly owned subsidiary, PSNC Natural Resources Corporation.

CORRECTION

The name Frank Austin, grandfather of the bridegroom, was inadvertently omitted from the list of honored guests at the wedding of Chuck Austin and Lisa Hampton in a news story in last week's Herald. All grandparents of the bride and bridegroom were honored guests at the ceremony.
