

Notary Course Slated

The Continuing Education Department of Cleveland Technical College will sponsor a four-hour Notary Public School class on Monday, July 30 at 6 p.m. in the Campus Center Auditorium.

The course, to be taught by Sylvia Dixon, is required of those who wish to apply for a notary public commission from the Secretary of State of North Carolina. Enrollees must have a high school diploma or its equivalent and purchase the approved manual, Notary Public Guidebook, which is on sale at Tech's bookstore.

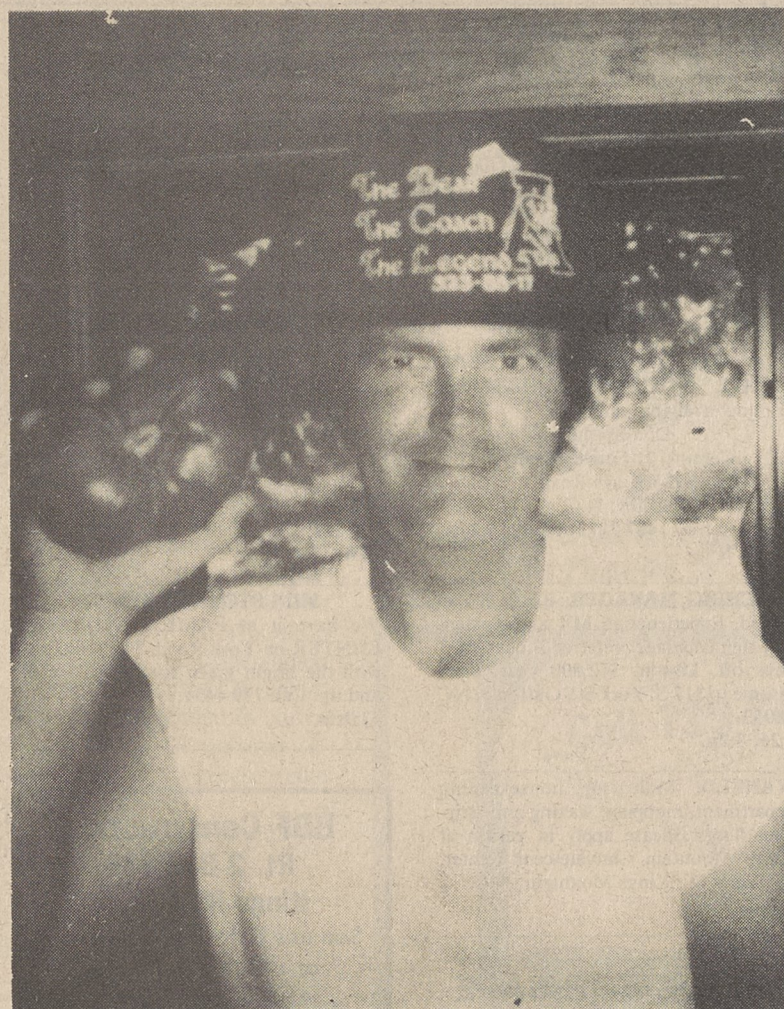

Registration will be held at the first class meeting. A fee of $10 will be charged, although anyone over 65 may enroll free. For additional information, call 484-4015.

Pair Issue Invitation

Louise Owens Johnson and Mitch Pietras have issued wedding invitations to Kings Mountain area friends and relatives to attend their wedding on Sat., Aug. 18th, at 11 a.m. in Lakewood Baptist Church, Durham.

A reception will be held after the ceremony at Bryan Center at Duke University.

Ms. Johnson is the daughter of Paul Owens of Kings Mountain and the late Christine Owens.

BIG RED - When Sammy Anderson of Kings Mountain grows a tomato, he grows one that will last a little longer. In his first attempt at gardening this year, Anderson grew this one pound, seven and one-half ounce tomato. Anderson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Anderson and is employed by the City of Kings Mountain Sanitation Department.

Softball Tourney Set

The fifth annual Chestnut Ridge Volunteer Fire Department Softball Tournament will be held Aug. 10-11-12 at Bessemer City's Washington Park.

Registration fee is $75 and participants supply their own softballs.

The One Pitch tournament is a unlimited homerun event for men and women.

For more information call Rick Franklin at 629-5558 after 4 p.m.

Hunt To Be Honored

Governor Jim Hunt will be honored by the people of Gaston County at a reception to be held Tuesday, July 31, at 7:00 p.m. at the Hoffman Hotel in Dallas.

"We are very excited about the upcoming event," said David Hoyle, co-chairman of Gaston County Jim Hunt Committee. "During his tenure as Governor, Jim Hunt has worked hard for all of the people of Gaston County and it is time for us to pull together and show our support for Jim Hunt. His commitment to progress and fairness will ensure that working people and small businessmen are represented fairly in Washington."

Tickets for the reception are $50 per person and all proceeds will go to the Jim Hunt Committee, which is organizing Governor Hunt's race for the U.S. Senate. Hunt will speak at the event.

For tickets and additional information contact one of the reception sponsors.

Bricklaying Course Set At C Tech

A bricklaying course for men and women will begin Monday, August 6 at 6 p.m. in the bricklaying building on the Cleveland Tech campus. The 11 weeks course, sponsored by Tech's continuing education department, will meet Monday and Tuesday evenings from 6 to 10 p.m. Richard Stroup, a long-time brick mason and experienced teacher, will instruct the classes.

The course is designed to give hands on experience in how to mix and spread mortar, lay bricks and blocks, and the proper use of the masonry rule. A planned construction project will constitute a large part of the bricklaying instruction.

The registration fee for the 88-hour course is $10 payable at the first class meeting. Persons age 65 and older are exempt by state law from paying the fee. Additional information may be obtained by calling 484-4015 Monday through Friday, 8 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Gospel Sing Is Scheduled

East Kings Mountain Church of God will sponsor a gospel singing Saturday night at 7 p.m. Rev. Randy Warren, a singing evangelist, will be featured in the service. He has played the piano and sung with many gospel groups across the country. Rev. Warren will also be ministering in the Sunday services at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. at the East Kings Mountain Church of God located on Bessemer City Highway just above Radio Station WKMT.

The public is invited to all services.

Gastonian Dies In Wreck

driver of the truck, Thomas Mack Cable, 32, of Route 1, Gastonia, was taken to Cleveland Memorial Hospital in Shelby and later transferred to Presbyterian Hospital in Charlotte.

Trooper Dale Keenum said the vehicle left the road on a sharp curve, turned on its side and struck the three. The wreck occurred around 3:54 a.m.

Assistant Cleveland County Coroner Dwight Tessner said Wallace died of massive head injuries.

Volunteers from Grover Rescue Squad and Bethlehem Fire Department worked for more than an hour to free Cable from the cab of the truck.

Cable has been charged with driving while impaired and felony death by vehicle.
