Ten Little Churchmen

Ten little churchmen went to church when things were fine - the going got a little rough - and then there were nine.
Nine little churchmen stayed up very late, one slept Sunday morning through - and then there were eight.
Eight little churchmen on the road to Heaven - one joined the golf club, and then there were seven.
Seven little churchmen solid as the very bricks - one was asked to serve as a Deacon - and then there was six.
Six little churchmen kept the pace alive, one liked to watch football games - and then there were five.
Five little churchmen seemed loyal to the core - the sermon offended one - and then there were four.
Four little churchmen argued heatedly over church policy - and then there were three.
Three little churchmen sang the service through - got a hymn they didn't like - and then there were two.
Two little churchmen disputed who should run the next church dinner - and then there were one.
One little churchmen, wondering what to do - brought a friend to church one day - and then there were two.
Two sincere churchmen each brought in one more - so their number doubled - and then there were four.
Four sturdy churchmen at worship each week - soon encouraged others, troubled souls to seek.
The seats in the church were filled with people cramming pew - May God supply such zeal and love in this Church too.
