Mrs. Myers Honored

Mrs. Gordon Myers (Jerry) was recently honored at a reception given by Trinity Episcopal Church for her 19 years of service as a teacher at Trinity Day School.

Steve Wells, Headmaster of Trinity Day School, and Mrs. Wells hosted the event at their home in the Dixon Community and 25 guests called between 2 and 4 p.m.

The guests were greeted by Mrs. Wells and invited to sign a guest book. They were then presented to the guest of honor and members of her family. Several guests presented Mrs. Myers an assortment of gifts in celebration of her retirement.

A color motif of light green, white and pink featured decorative details and refreshments. The table was overlaid with a white linen cloth and arranged with silver and crystal trays holding an assortment of hors d'oeuvres and party pickups. At the center of the table was a pink, red, and green cake encribed, "Happy Retirement, Jerry". The cake was baked and decorated by Mrs. Myers' former team teacher, Mrs. Willie Davis. The menu included sausage balls, cheese tidbits, fruit, nuts, mints and finger sandwiches. Mrs. Connie Marlowe served red punch.

Upon her arrival Mrs. Myers was presented a corsage of white peace roses which were given by Mrs. Wells and which matched her pink and white ensemble.

Mrs. Myers, a native of Mt. Vernon, Ohio, has lived in many areas of the United States since her husband was affiliated with Transco Gas Company. She came to Trinity Day School in 1965 and became the Head Teacher in 1974, a post which she held until her husband, Gordon, retired. She and her husband Gordon, reside on Scotland Drive. They have two daughters, Ms. Lee (Sandy) Bassinger of Statesville and Mrs. David (Barbara) Middlebrooks of Eunice, La.

The guests included co-workers of Mrs. Myers during her 19 years of service at Trinity Church, including members, family, church members and friends. Her co-workers included Mrs. Willie Davis, Mrs. Ray Holt, Mrs. Grace White, Mrs. Carolyn Cobb, and Miss Nelda Fisher. Her family included her husband, Gordon Myers, and her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Bassinger, Randy, Stacie, and Bonnie, from Statesville. Others included Mrs. Harold Wells, Mrs. Chris Morrison, Miss Julie Scism, Dr. and Mrs. Larry Muench, Jeff, Jim and Jenny, and Mrs. Connie Marlowe. Also attending from St. Mark's Episcopal Church in Asheville was the Rev. John Southern, former priest of Trinity Episcopal Church, and former Headmaster of Trinity Day School.

Homecoming Scheduled

Homecoming Day will be observed at the Kings Mountain Missionary Methodist Church Sunday, Sept. 2. The church is located at the corner of Shockley and Second Streets.

Rev. Kenneth Kanipe, a former minister, will deliver the message at the morning worship hour. Picnic lunch will be spread on the grounds and a song service will be held in the afternoon.

Featured singers for the day will be the Masters Quartet from the Hartland Missionary Methodist Church.

The song service will get underway at 2 p.m. Members, former members and friends are invited to attend the activities of the day.
