

Harding-Gsellman Pair Exchange Marriage Vows

MRS. KENNETH GSELLMAN
(Wanda Harding)

First Church of the Nazarene provided the setting Friday for the wedding of Miss Wanda Jane Harding and Kenneth Lorenz Gsellman.

Rev. L.K. Fannin heard the exchange of vows in the double ring ceremony.

Evelyn Bridges was organist for the program of nuptial music and Mr. and Mrs. Todd Frady were vocalists.

The bride's father gave her in marriage. Best man for the bridegroom was his father.

The bride's gown was designed by Alfred Angelo for Bridallure of re-embroidered Chantilly lace and luster sheer. The curved yoked neckline was trimmed in re-embroidered Chantilly lace and matching lace trimmed the puffed sleeves of luster sheer with rows of ruffles at the back of the long skirt and on the chapel length train. She carried a white bridal bouquet atop a white Bible.

Mrs. June Ruff attended the bride as matron of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Becky Moss, Mrs. Lisa Crawford, Mrs. Donna Dotson, Mrs. Sandra Walker, all of Kings Mountain, and Mrs. Lora Harding of Shelby. Kellie Hagans was flower girl and Jason Ruff was ringbearer.

Ushers were David Harding of Shelby and Scott Crawford, Glen Moss, Randy Butler, and Ted Webster, all of Kings Mountain.

Kings Mountain Depot was setting for the reception which followed the ceremony and which was hosted by Mrs. Becky Coletta and Mrs. Ruth Burton. The wedding cake was cut and served with party refreshments.

Arthur Harding of Gastonia and Janice Harding of Kings Mountain are parents of the bride, who is a graduate of Kings Mountain Senior High School and is employed by Clevefont Mills.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lorenz Gsellman of Kings Mountain and graduated from Kings Mountain Senior High School. He is employed by Wix Corporation of Gastonia.

The newlyweds have returned from a wedding trip to Gatlinburg, Tennessee and are at home in Kings Mountain.
