MOVING FAST

Whether it's a new job or a promotion, when you get the call to move across the country, you have to work FAST. The company wants you behind your new desk within a matter of weeks. That's not much time to sell your home and find a new one. It's a lot easier with the help of experts who are accustomed to the problem and the pace.

We have two sources of help: a pool of prospective buyers here, and a referral to a broker in your new location. We'll market your house and alert our distant colleagues to find a comfortable home that meets your needs and budget.

By the time you visit your new post, there will be houses lined up for you to see. You won't have to waste time looking for help or explaining your needs again. Decision-making is much easier when the groundwork is done ahead.

Whether you're moving across the country, or just across town, you'll find it's smart to let a real estate professional handle all the details. List with the experts at Alexander Realty.

Sonya Condrey To Ride In Carrousel Parade

Sonya Diane Condrey, daughter of Mrs. and Mrs. Roger Condrey of Grover and a senior at Kings Mountain Senior High School, is among 40 high school princesses from North and South Carolina who will vie for the title of Carrousel Queen in the 38th Annual Carolinas' Carrousel Parade Thursday, November 22, in Charlotte.

The Carrousel Parade, a long-standing Carolinas Thanksgiving tradition will feature celebrities, including Miss America, Sharlene Wells, high school and college bands, floats, clowns, marching units and other entries and will be broadcast Thanksgiving afternoon on WBTV (Channel 3).

In addition to the Parade activities, the contestants will participate in the Queen's Luncheon on Tuesday, November 20, at the Charlotte Convention Center and a Pageant and Coronation Dance that night at the Charlotte Convention Center. Participants will also tour area colleges, attend luncheons sponsored by area businesses as part of the 4 days of Carrousel activities. The new Carrousel Queen will also attend the Carolina Ambassadors Ball on Friday, November 23 at Carmel Country Club.

The Queen's Luncheon and Coronation Dance are open to the public. The Chairmen of the Board will perform at the Dance.

SONYA CONDREY

Tickets may be obtained by writing the Carolinas' Carrousel office at P.O. Box 34644, Charlotte, N.C. 28234.

Miss Condrey, 17, stands five feet eight inches tall and is a hazel-eyed brunette. She enjoys swimming, tennis, skiing, hiking, nature and animals and plans to attend N.C. State University and major in veterinary medicine and minor in zoology. She attended Broyhill Academy and has been active in the Beta Club, Pep Club, FCA, Kewanettes, Varsity Cheerleading Squad, Red Cross Club, Science Club and Spanish Club at Kings Mountain High School.
