Concert Slated At G-W

Boiling Springs, N.C.--The Gardner-Webb College chorale and concert will give a performance Nov. 29 at 8 p.m. in the Kathleen Dover Theatre on the Boiling Springs campus.

The concert is open to the public free of charge.

Both the chorale and the concert choir will perform under the direction of Dr. Phil Perrin, professor of music.

The concert choir will sing nine selections including a Victoria Latin motet, "O magnum mysterium".

"Anticipating the 400th birthday of Heinrich Scheutz and the 300th birthday of Bach and Handel next year, the concert choir will sing representative works of each master," Dr. Perrin said.

The chorale will sing "Sheep May Safely Graze" by Bach, "Jesu, Word of God Incarnate" by Mozart, and "The Last Words of David" by Randall Thompson. Selections from Mendelssohn's "Elijah" and Haydn's "Seasons" will also be performed.

A special feature of this concert will be the performance of a combined men's chorus and a combined women's chorus. The men will be directed by Dr. George Cribb, chairman of the department of fine arts, and the women will be directed by Elizabeth Minus, adjunct instructor of voice and director of the G-W chorale union.

The concert choir and chorale will combine to sing a closing number with Mrs. Minus conducting and Dr. Cribb accompanying.

Holy Land Tour Slated

For more information, write Rev. Oscar Stalcup, P.O. Box 91, Kings Mountain, N.C. 28086 or call 629-3940.

"BECAUSE WE CARE"

White Plains Shrine Club
KINGS MOUNTAIN, NC 28086

A big thank you to all members of the White Plains Shrine Club and their wives, and all the outstanding people of Kings Mountain for the excellent job you did in 1984 to help the crippled and burned children.

The White Plains Shrine Club, in only its second year of existence, raised $17,002.36 this year through our paper sale, donkey basketball game, softball tournament and barbecue and our fall barbecue and candy sale. This money was part of $750,795.01 raised by all the clubs in the Oasis Temple of Charlotte.

There is no greater feeling as that which you get when you have truly extended a helping hand to someone in need.

As Shriners hospital for crippled children complete their 61st year, they do so with the knowledge that they have cured or substantially helped approximately 218,000 crippled and burned children.

When you spot the men who wear the red fezzes, please continue to support this worthwhile cause and help our children. A crippled child's smile makes it all worthwhile.

THANKS AGAIN!
