The tables were beautifully decorated with colorful Fall flowers, which were chrysanthemums in pumpkin containers.

The invocation was given by Kay Jolly, after which a delicious Thanksgiving lunch was enjoyed. Carol Parker brought greetings.

For the program entitled "Looking Back-What Makes The Good Old Days So Wonderful?" the following charter members were honored: Mrs. Vera B. Hoyle, Mrs. Maude K. JAYCEE JELLY WEEK - Kings Mountain Jaycees are raising money through the sale of jelly for the North Carolina Burn Center at Chapel Hill. From left, Jaycee Chairman John O. Plonk, III and Jaycee President Brad Tage, right, sell the first glass of Jaycee Jelly to Kings Mountain Mayor John Moss.

Jaycees Selling Jelly

John O. Plonk, III, local businessman, has been named chairman of the Kings Mountain Jaycee Jelly Week by Brad Tate, President of the Kings Mountain Jaycees. Mr. Plonk will head the local drive during the week of Dec. 4th through Dec. 11th to raise money for the North Carolina Jaycee Burn Center at Chapel Hill.

A goal of 1,200 jars of jelly has been set for Kings Mountain. The jelly is one dollar per jar with 100 percent of the proceeds going to the Burn Center.

The Burn Center and the many burn victims depend on the success of the jelly sale, says Plonk, who encourages Kings Mountain citizens to support the project.

President Tate says the Kings Mountain Jaycees would like to thank all the people of Kings Mountain for their help and support. He says the members have worked hard and have had the very best year ever. The Jaycees are proud to announce that they have been able to help through cash gifts and volunteer work the Kings Mountain Boys Club, the North Carolina Boys Home, the North Carolina Burn Center, the Juvenile Diabetes Foundation and a new Scout Troop for handicapped children in the Kings Mountain area.

Jelly Chairman Plonk and President Tate said local people continue to help Jaycees make this community and this state a better place for those less fortunate with their support of many community-wide projects over the years.

In conjunction with the project, Mayor John Moss signed a proclamation this week setting the week of Dec. 4-11 as Kings Mountain Jaycees Annual Jelly Week:
