Senior Citizens Party

Bethware School Cloggers entertained Kings Mountain Senior Citizens at a traditional Christmas party Monday afternoon at the Depot Center.

The Christmas Party was hosted for all senior citizens 60 and over by Ahoy Exercise Class at the Depot Center under direction of Monty Thornburg.

Tables were overlaid with Christmas cloths and the dining room of the Depot Center was decorated in greenery and red bows. A large tree was trimmed with lights and silver decorations and on the mantel were candles and red bows and greenery. A lighted fire in the fireplace added to the atmosphere.

Mrs. W. Lawrence Logan welcomed guests and presided at a Christmas register. Senior Center Director Teresa Melton brought greetings and recognized special guests, including City Commissioners Irvin Allen, Corbet Nicholson, Norman King, Jim Dickey, Curtis Gaffney, Mrs. Dickey, Mrs. King, and Mayor John Henry Moss. Mrs. Melton also recognized Mrs. E.W. Neal, retired Kings Mountain teacher, as the senior guest present. Mrs. Neal recently celebrated her 94th birthday.

Members of the Ahoy Exercise Class, assisted by Billie Farris, served a variety of party refreshments and punch. Serving

You Can Get Call From Santa

Children in North Carolina have a special advantage with old St. Nick at Christmastime this year.

The North Pole Connection, a new event sponsored by the Easter Seal Society, REACT and Hardees, is a direct line from good boys and girls to Santa's workshop this holiday season. Any child under eight years of age who is registered with the North Pole Connection by December 18, will receive a three minute call from Santa and his merry elves to talk of Christmas wishes.

Proceeds from the North Pole connection will be used to provide services to physically disabled children and adults throughout North Carolina.

Registration forms are available at area day care centers or from the Easter Seal Society. For more information call the Easter Seal Society at 1-800-662-7119.

Christmas Musicales Set

A Christmas program and musicale, "Stranger In The Straw" will be presented at Macedonia Baptist Church Wednesday night, Dec. 19th, at 7 p.m.

The Music Makers and Young Musicians Choirs will sing a variety of songs, including gentle waltzes, a calypso, tender lullabies, and fanfarish marches in unique and dramatic presentation to which the public is invited.

Treats will be presented to the children at the close of the service by Santa Claus.

Know about laxatives

If you're one of the millions of Americans who use laxatives, ask yourself these questions: Why are you taking it? Are you trying to correct a case of constipation, or has it become habit? Prolonged use will impair normal bowel function and lead to dangerous dependence. . . . Do you use laxatives to stop abdominal pains? If so, don't! You could overlook a serious problem, like appendicitis. . . . Are you taking it for an unexplained intestinal problem? Again, don't! You could be ignoring bowel cancer. Any time elimination habits change abruptly, see your family doctor.
