CHRISTMAS IS ALMOST HERE—Misty Smith, seven-year-old daughter of Jo Ann and Greg Hambricht and Eddie Smith, whispers in Santa's ear that she has been a good girl and expects to see him on Christmas Eve. Santa is getting requests from many Kings Mountain boys and girls this week and their letters to him to the North Pole via The Herald. Santa visited children at Parkdale Mills annual plant party Saturday at Depot Center.

TOP TEENS—Voted the Top Teens at Central School by the Kings Mountain Jaycees from among a large group of nominees were Chris Henson, 7th grader, son of Scott and Jeanne Henson and Amy Turner, 7th grader, daughter of Wayne and Pam Turner. Principal Glenda O'Shields, center, congratulates the students.

5th Graders Write Santa

wish you make better laws to prevent drunk drivers.

What my family needs most is more time to be together. I don't see my dad because he works most of the time. A new car would be nice because the other is too small for all of us.

For myself, I would wish for a stereo. I can do my homework better listening to music.

Sarah

Dear Santa,

I would like to help the people in Mexico City, because their houses burned when a gas line burst. They also need food or they will starve.

I would like for you to help prevent fires that should not happen. In the first place, fires are dangerous and many people get killed in fires. Fires also destroy our forest.

I would like a gun for Christmas, so when my dad goes hunting I can go also.

Matthew Stout

Dear Santa,

I wish that you would help make stricter laws against pollution. Both animals and the people are suffering from drinking impure water and breathing polluted air.

Please bring my family a PC Junior, so we could enjoy it together, also, help my family not scream at each other.

I wish I had a pogo stick, so I could hop around on it. I would also like a baby Cabbage Patch Kid, so I could have a good time with it. Some surprises would also be nice.

Genora

Dear Santa,

I would like to help people who drink while they drive. Many more lives would be saved if someone would drive those who drink home. I would like you to help make better laws for this. I think if our policemen would go around to places where drinks are sold and check if every thing is alright more lives will be saved. What I want for Christmas is a new pair of glasses so I can see well.

Angel

Dear Santa,

I would like you to try to help stop pollution. I think there should be better laws to stop the pollution of air and water. I think if factories or people are caught polluting they should be fined a lot of money.

My family wants a microwave. It would really help my mother to have one.

Gift Ideas

There's a dryly humorous accompaniment available for the shower sopranos and bathtub baritones on your gift list: Wet Tunes—the water resistant radio—handy for bath, boat, kitchen or laundry.

A radio made for singing in the shower may be music to many of the ears on your gift list.

With this radio, one can start the day with an AM or FM sing-along-shower, lather up to disco, shampoo to country & western and rinse off to the mellow sound. Some say it's the best thing to happen to the shower since soap.

Easily mounted on any surface without tools, this battery powered AM/FM radio takes one 9 volt battery. The radio is available for $32, plus $2.95 for shipping and handling (tax is not included), from Wryte On, P.O. Box 393, Commack, N.Y. 11725.

I want a transformer, a watch, and a wood burning set.

Brian

GROUP III

Dear Santa,

I wish my dad had a riding lawnmower. I wish Mom had some more cooking materials for the kitchen. These things would be nice and it would help them.

I want some clothes because I need them. I want some GI Joe toys. I also want a watch and an Atari game.

Steven Murphy

Dear Santa,

I wish that my daddy was still alive, because I love my daddy. I love doing things with my daddy. My daddy and I had lots of fun together.

I wish that I had alot of toys to play with. I also wish I could have straight A's on my report card.

Jennifer

Dear Santa,

I wish you would stop people from killing other people. We need people to live so they can take care of us. I love my family. I wish we could have more time together.
