What Christmas Means To Me
By: Tanya Willis

Christmas means presents, family, Santa Claus, customs, Christmas trees, plays, and alot more. But still there is more to it than that - like Jesus Christ, God, and the Holy Ghost. I say Christmas is a time for giving, sharing, and giving some more. No one will ever know how much Christmas really means to me. I just can't put it in words.

Christmas means a lot to me because it is a time to celebrate Jesus' birthday. And Christmas is a time to receive gifts and other things. One long, long time ago an angel came to Mary and told her to name her baby, Jesus. When this happened, God put a big star to show where the baby Jesus was and three wise men and some shepherds came to see the baby. When the king heard this he wanted to kill the baby but they couldn't find him.

Christmas is a happy time for getting Christmas presents. What I mostly want this year are Barbies, clothes, and jewelry. The best thing about Christmas is Jesus, being in Christmas plays, and that sort of thing. Christmas is not all receiving. It is giving also. My mother is getting the best Christmas present of all. It is perfume with a bird on the top of the bottle.

It means getting and receiving. You also should give. You also go to church and have a program at night. We have a lot of people at church on Christmas day. We get to see Santa Claus and his eight reindeers on his sled at night on Christmas. You send a letter to Santa so he will bring you a lot. You never know what he will bring you. He will fill up your stocking with goodies and a lot of stuff. You will like Santa Claus. Santa is a nice man.

It means joy and happiness to all. We usually celebrate Christmas the 25th of December. Because Jesus was born. We get presents. But we should all give Jesus a present of our love. This will make him happy. We might not think of Jesus but it's his birthday not ours. On Christmas we don't think about Jesus. We only think of our own self, nobody but ourself. When you don't think about Jesus that makes him very sad. Remember to think about Jesus too. So when you're having fun stop and tell Jesus you love him. It will make Him feel good.

Christmas is joyfulness, and cheerfulness, and happiness.

Everyone likes Christmas even your parents too. Your friends, your grandparents, even the whole city likes Christmas except Scrooge. He's a mean cartoon character. Everybody likes Christmas unless you are a Scrooge.

Christmas is celebrate Jesus' birth. That's what Christmas means to me. We all need to have a happy Christmas always. Have fun with your Christmas because I know a little boy that doesn't have Christmas. His mom and dad have a religion they don't have Christmas or any other holidays. They only have Thanksgiving. He's only 3 years old.
