Christmas means that you and your family put up a tree and decorate it. Then you put presents around it. After awhile Christmas Eve is here. Your family sings Christmas songs and has a big feast. Then comes 9:00 at night when you fall asleep quickly for tomorrow will be Christmas day. While you're sleeping you have a dream that you get everything you want. When the dream ends you wake up and it's morning. You wake up and just about everything you wanted you got. And most of all it's Jesus' birthday.

What Christmas means to me is that Baby Jesus was born. If Baby Jesus hadn't been born we wouldn't have had any Christmas trees to make the house look better for Christmas time. It also wouldn't be any fun. Christmas also wouldn't be no fun if we didn't have family and friends to celebrate with or to exchange gifts. And Christmas also means getting toys and other things. With the smell of Christmas cookies, cakes, turkey and pies in the oven. And of course playing with toys.
