What Christmas means is that it was Jesus' birthday. And that your family is suppose to get together and have dinner, open gifts, and celebrate Jesus' birthday. You're suppose to play with your gifts. Then you're suppose to have cake, and coffee, talk and then go home and go to bed. That's what Christmas means to me.

What Christmas means to me is first of all it is my birthday and it is the birthday of Christ. There is a lot of excitement and surprises to see what Santa has brought for me. There is a lot of love, happiness, and joy when we all go to grandmother's house. Last of all Christmas is a spiritual holiday when we should be thankful that we live in a country where we can worship Christ.

What Christmas Means To Me

Thanksgiving is the time we start decorating our home with greens and reds. We string popcorn. My favorite time to light the tree is early in the morning when I am getting ready for school.

Stores are crowded, music is playing, everyone is buying presents, and hoping for snow. Lights are blinking, and Santa Claus and secrets seem to be everywhere!

There are hugs and kisses under the mistletoe and love and presents for everyone.

Our best present was from God many years ago in Bethlehem. He gave his son, Jesus.

Thank you, God, for the best present ever.

Christmas doesn't just mean getting toys. It means getting to see a lot of your family and going to church to see all of your old friends again plus going to praise God. Christmas is a day when you thank God for letting Jesus be born. I think that when we give presents, that's when the three wisemen were giving baby Jesus presents. I love Christmas.

To me, Christmas is not just giving and receiving presents, it is also a time for love and happiness to surround your loved ones. It is the togetherness of your family and friends although some of you don't believe in Santa Claus and his reindeer, you should believe in and pray to Christ when you open your gifts and wish Him a happy birthday and thank him for all he has done for you. That is what Christmas means to me.

Christmas is a time for loving, sharing and giving. The most important thing Christmas means to me is Christ's birthday. Christmas is a time for happiness and peacefulness. Christmas means a lot to me because it is a time for love and kindness and also a time for giving and being thankful for what we have. Some people do not even have Christmas because they are so poor they can't afford it and that just makes me more thankful for what little I have. I like Christmas because I get to put the ornaments on the tree. I get to go out and play with our Christmas toys that is the best time of all. We went to my grandmothers house last Christmas.

What Christmas Means To Me

Christmas means sharing. It also means loving. Getting presents is part of Christmas. Presents don't have to be big or cost a lot of money. A hug is a good present, or a kiss for most people. For instance take your grandparents you could give them a huge hug or kiss. My grandparents buy me presents but I don't have the money to buy them a present so I give them a hug or kiss and they say thank you.

What Christmas Means To Me

When I think of Christmas I think of Jesus' birthday and Christmas is a time for love. Jesus loved us so much that he died on the cross for our sins that we might be saved. At Christmas the best gift is giving our life to the Lord and let him lead us and guide us. I enjoy people singing songs about Jesus. I like to see Christmas lights, and people fellowshiping with God. I think of Jesus in a manger with swaddling clothes and Mary and Joseph sitting beside him. This is what Christmas means to me.
