

Local Students Join Kappa Delta Pi

CULLOWHEE--Three Western Carolina University students from Gaston County are among 54 newly elected members of the Mu Eta chapter of Kappa Delta Pi honor society in education at WCU.

The new members--Theresa Bumgardner of Kings Mountain, Gayla Green of Dallas and David Tresch, a 1977 graduate of Cherryville Senior High School--were among those honored recently at initiation ceremonies in Asheville and in Cullowhee.

Kappa Delta Pi endeavors to maintain a high degree of professional fellowship among members and to enhance professional growth by honoring achievement in educational work. Membership is open to undergraduate and graduate students who meet specific academic requirements, exhibit worthy educational ideals and intend to continue in the field of education.

Miss Bumgardner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bud Bumgardner of Route 3, Kings Mountain, and a 1981 graduate of Kings Mountain High School, is a senior majoring in special education at Western. She is a member of the Student Council for Exceptional Children, Alpha Lambda Delta honor society for freshmen and the advisory committee to the dean of the School of Education and Psychology. She is on the dean's list and has received scholarships to WCU.

Miss Green, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Green of 1504 Bessemer City Road, Dallas, is a 1969 graduate of Dallas High School and a 1973 graduate of Mars Hill College. She received a master's degree in middle grade education from WCU in 1977 and is an elementary school physical education teacher in the Gaston County schools.

Tresch is assistant athletic trainer at WCU and is pursuing a master's degree in physical education.

Tresch has been elected as an athletic trainer to every major North Carolina all-star game and has served as a trainer at the AAU Junior Nationals, the Special Olympics and the NCAA national championships in basketball, soccer and football.

Decker Selected

BOILING SPRINGS, NC--Robert L. Decker, Ed.D., associate professor of music at Gardner-Webb College, has been selected to read a paper at the mid-atlantic chapter meeting of the College Music Society in Richmond, Va., March 29-30, 1985.

Dr. Decker was selected by the program committee of the society to give a paper based upon research done for a doctoral dissertation. The dissertation was entitled "A Survey to Determine the Use of Music Theory Knowledge and Skills by North Carolina Public School Music Teachers."

"This is a noteworthy accomplishment. We haven't had anyone in the music department selected to read before," said Dr. George Cribb, chairman of the department of fine arts.

The paper will be published in the College Music Society's Journal, "College Music Symposium".

Gardner Webb is a liberal arts college affiliated with the Baptist State Convention of N.C., offering associate, bachelor and master's degrees. The college is noted for its independence of federal funding.
