

Board Of Realtors Officially Chartered

Baskerville made the charter presentation, with Mrs. Alexander accepting on behalf of the KM Board of Realtors.

Guests enjoyed tossed garden salad, top round of beef, baked chicken with wild rice and gravy, green beans almondine, mashed potatoes with sour cream and chives, broccoli normandy, hot rolls, and cherry parfait in a Valentine setting. Tables were decorated with red streamers down the center with bows at table ends and the central decoration was a valentine red and white arrangement on the speaker's table. A new gold, blue and white KM Board of Realtors banner was behind the podium and was presented to Secretary Larry Hamrick, Sr., to be used at monthly meetings of the KM Board.

ENTERTAINS BETA CHI CHAPTER-Reg Alexander, above, was guest speaker and sang and played guitar for members of Beta Chi Chapter at the recent meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bryant. Alexander used the subject, "Heavy Thoughts On The Lighter Side." Jackie Blanton, a former teacher of Mr. Alexander's in third grade, introduced him.

Reg Alexander Speaks To KM Beta Chi Chapter

Reg Alexander, owner and operator of Regal Ventures, a Christian ministry to youth in downtown Kings Mountain, was guest speaker at the recent meeting of Beta Chi Chapter of Alpha Delta Kappa at the home of Mrs. Howard Bryant.

Alexander also entertained the group with musical selections and talked on "Heavy Thoughts On The Lighter Side". He stressed that "communication is most important between students and teachers" and said that the best lesson students can learn is "the biggest restrictions we ever have are the restrictions we place on ourselves."

Alexander, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Alexander, was introduced by his former third grade teacher, Miss Jackie Blanton, who arranged the program. Miss Blanton said Alexander was one of her most "creative students."

Lina Owens, reporting on the Altruistic efforts of the teacher sorority during the past year, said that chapter gifts have totaled $1300 with
