Program Scheduled

A public education program entitled "The Amazing Infant" will be presented on Saturday, March 23rd, 9:30 a.m.-12:00 noon in the Youth Lounge at Shelby Presbyterian Church. The program is being sponsored by Consumers for Childbirth Choices of Cleveland and Rutherford Counties, a member of the International Childbirth Education Association.

Natasha Hayes, M.D., Pediatrician, will present the Physical Development of the Infant; Common Problems in Infancy; and Physical Exam of the Infant (with a live demonstration).

Elaine Kistler, M.A., Psychologist, and Jean Horne, Developmental Disabilities Specialist - both from the Developmental Evaluation Center - will present Social Development and Infant Stimulation.

The program is free and open to the public. Child care will be available on the premises at a cost of $1.00/child.

Seminar Scheduled

Lighthouse Christian Ministry to Singles will sponsor a Temperment Seminar on Sat., March 23, beginning at 3 p.m. at Second Baptist Church.

"The seminar is open to all who care to learn more about their behavioural patterns in order to enhance their own personal development to the glory of God," said Rev. Gene Land. Cost for the seminar and materials is $5 and space is limited.

Rev. Land To Lead Tour

Rev. Gene Land, pastor of Second Baptist Church, will lead a group tour to Israel, Athens and Corinth, departing on March 5, 1986.

If you are interested in joining the group to the Holy Land, call the church office for reservations and more information about the trip.

Chastity Moss Wins Trophies

Chastity Moss, daughter of Mickey and Linda Moss, competed in two Little Miss Beauty Pageants during the past two weekends.

In the Little Miss Queen of South Carolina contest in Greenville, she was runner-up in the Beauty division. In the Miss Southern Charm Pageant in Hickory, she was runner-up in the Talent division.

Contestants are judged in these pageants on beauty, poise, personality, party dress, personal interviews and talent competition and on modeling ability.

Rock-N-Roll Jamboree To Benefit Heart Fund

Residents of Kings Mountain Convalescent Center will rock for the Heart Fund on Friday from 10 a.m. until 6 p.m. at a Rock-N-Roll Jamboree at the nursing facility.

Patients in rocking chairs will be obtaining sponsors for the big benefit which will include special entertainment throughout the day, arts and crafts made by the patients, and hot dogs with all the trimmings from 11 a.m. until 1 p.m.

A free blood pressure clinic will also be available to everyone attending the jamboree. Donations of craft items and baked goods are invited from the public and donations will also be appreciated for the hot dog sale.

All proceeds go to the Heart Fund.

Sponsors are needed for those residents rocking between 10 a.m. and 12 noon.

This is one way that nursing home residents can show they are still an important part of the community and the public is invited to participate in all activities of the Jamboree.

Voltaire, the famous French writer, was said to drink 50 cups of coffee a day.
