We wish to express our deepest appreciation for the many phone calls, cards, visits and other expressions of concern and love shown to us during Jim's sickness and in our bereavement.

Next Week Family Week

"Focus on the Family" is a statewide effort sponsored by the North Carolina Agricultural Extension Service to call attention to the importance of the family. The week of March 24-30 has been designated "Focus on the Family Week." The purpose is to identify educational opportunities Extension has to offer in the areas of agriculture, 4-H, home economics and community and rural development that will strengthen the family unit.

Activities planned for Cleveland County include:

March 25-May 13 - Exhibit by Cleveland County Extension Homemakers at the Historical Museum of items used by early homemakers and a historical account of the organization.

March 28, Thursday, 7 p.m. - Estate Planning Workshop in the auditorium of the County Office Building. Dr. Nathan Garren, Extension Economist, NC State University, Raleigh, will present the program. He will discuss wills, property ownership, trusts, North Carolina and federal inheritance and gift taxes, gifts to minors, and dying without a will in North Carolina.

March 29, Friday, 7-9 p.m. - Focus on the Family Carousel at the Cleveland Mall (center court area). Family activities such as clogging, singing, puppet show, fancy jump rope, and square dancing will be featured. The Cleveland County Agricultural Extension Service will exhibit information on programs offered in agriculture, home economics, 4-H and community and rural development.

Posters from area school children will be displayed at the mall March 25-29. Poster contest winners will be announced Friday night. You are invited to participate in all of these activities. For further information call the County Extension Office (482-4365).

based on product quality, delivery and service. Foote's employees can take pride in being responsible for the high quality, on time delivery and service that resulted in this award.

Making the presentation to General Manager Walter Cooke was Jim Alexander, vice president of sales for Reynolds Metals, and Scott Watson, sales manager of chemicals and ceramic sales. Also accepting the award were Scoop Peeler, Foote's chief chemist and shipping supervisor, Shippers Curtis Ruppe and Ernest Hector, Mike Seawright, Shipping Foreman, and L.E. Dotson, Plant Superintendent.

The handsome plaque in an aluminum frame praised the company for "Your Quality Shines Through..." and noted that Foote's Operation in Kings Mountain was one of four among 1,000 suppliers to receive the coveted award.
