Cancer Fund Drive

Kings Mountain Senior High Fellowship of Christian Athletes is sponsoring a fund raising drive for the American Cancer Society this week and students are "sending a Mouse To College" by donating $1.75 each toward a $1500 goal.

Jill Brooks, president of the FCA, said that Kings Mountain citizens are encouraged to support the effort and that all funds will remain in Cleveland County to help cancer patients of the area. She said students raising the most money will receive cash prizes, free tee shirts, and free food and the winning homeroom that collects the most money in the four classes will get plaques and trophies from the American Cancer Society. She said that persons who buy gasoline from Lutz Oil on Saturday from 8 to 5:30 p.m. and in-form gas attendants of the project will earn five cents from each gallon of gasoline purchased for the cancer fund of students.

Steve Baker is faculty advisor for the project.
