May 20. The remaining $20 will be due on the first day of camp.

The objective of the camp is to provide individual instruction in all phases of basketball, to introduce young athletes to an agility program which will aid their growth and development, to obtain objective data regarding players, and to develop the proper mental attitude toward the game of basketball.

Each camper will receive a camp T-shirt, basketball, handbook and certificate. Trophies will be awarded to the outstanding campers and obstacle course winners.

Coach Sipe has served as head coach at KMHS for two years and was the Southwestern 3-A Conference's Coach of the Year during the 1984-85 season. Prior to coming here, he served 11 years as jayvee coach at Washington High School, where he helped turn out two state championship teams and two All-American players in Alvis Rogers and Dominique Wilkins. He has worked with outstanding coaches such as Dean Smith of North Carolina, Bill Foster of Duke and South Carolina, Lee Rose and Mike Pratt of UNC-Charlotte and Dave Patton of East Carolina. Sipe will again serve on Dean Smith's Carolina basketball camp staff this summer.

When you're out of work you're out of luck. Unless you've planned ahead.

If your paycheck should halt, the bills will keep right on coming.

When the unexpected happens--an accident, a long illness, loss of your job--you may soon find yourself in a financial hole that's just too deep for you to crawl out of.

The answer, of course, is to set aside enough money from every paycheck to take care of the times when there is no paycheck.

We know that's easier said than done. But it can be done, if you set goals which are realistic to your pocketbook... then stick by them.

So stop by Home Federal and let us tell you about our many different savings plans. But please, do it today, before the unexpected happens.
