Three KMHS Juniors To Attend Girls State

Three rising seniors at Kings Mountain Senior High School will represent Otis D. Green Unit 155 American Legion Auxiliary as Girls State Citizens at annual Tar Heel Girls State June 9-15 at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro.

They are Patricia Lynn McGinnis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John B. McGinnis, Teresa Lynn Grigg, daughter of Mrs. David O'Shields and Dewey Grigg, and Ashley and DeAnne Gossett, daughter of Mrs. Shirley Brutko and Roy Gossett.

The students are all honor students, in addition to serving in campus clubs and community activities.

Girls State delegates participate in a variety of activities which are designed to improve their awareness and understanding of the organization and operations of government and politics which are debated currently in North Carolina. The objective of Girls State is to improve citizenship for future and present generations of Tar Heels.

Candidates for Girls State are carefully screened for those girls with outstanding qualities, including leadership, character, scholarship and service. Young women who are members of the rising senior class are the candidates considered for attendance at Tar Heel Girls State.

The 1985 session will begin with registration on Sunday, June 9th and will close with the morning session at noon on Saturday, June 15.

Parents are invited to accompany their daughter to UNC-G on Sunday for registration and reception hosted by the American Legion Auxiliary and to attend the opening ceremonies that evening. Parents are also invited to attend the closing exercises on Saturday morning, June 15th.

Crime Program Slated

Monday at 2 p.m. at the Senior Center, a Crime Prevention Program will be held sponsored by the Keyettes, a club at Kings Mountain Senior High School and the Public Affairs Department of the Kings Mountain Woman's Club.

Senior citizens who would like to know more about protecting themselves against crime are invited to attend.

One part of the program concerns "Operation Peephole". The Keyettes will provide funds and manpower for approximately 40 peephole units. Eligibility requirements for these will be determined by the Keyettes with assistance from the Kings Mountain Aging Center.

Clyde Adams, police officer with the Shelby Police Department, will speak on recent information concerning crime prevention.

A film, "Crime-Senior Alert", is scheduled to be shown.

Refreshments will be furnished by the Public Affairs Department of the Kings Mountain Woman's Club.

Dye Receives B.S. Degree

Rex Eugene Dye, son of Gene and Joyce Dye of 802 Henry Street, Kings Mountain, received in December his Bachelor of Science in Business Administration with a major in Accounting from Western Carolina University. He was also on the Dean's List for the fall semester.

Dye is a 1980 graduate of Kings Mountain Senior High.

He is presently employed at Winn-Dixie headquarters in Jacksonville, Florida, as an internal auditor.

Central Needs Bus Drivers

Central School in Kings Mountain will be hiring four bus drivers for the 1985-86 school year.

The current salary is $4.25 per hour with a $200 bonus per year if all requirements are met.

Interested persons should contact Greg Payseur, assistant principal, at 739-3641. A driver's training class will be held May 7 and 9 at Crest High School. Classes start at 8:15 a.m.
