The students love her for the special help she gives them."

Mrs. Bumgardner, "George Lublanekzi has been a tremendous help to me this year. He works with one of my students in reading. My class members and I always look forward to his visits to the class."

Mrs. Nancy Cagle, "Debbie Mauney has been a tremendous help to me this year in grading papers. Thanks!"

Mrs. Pattie Weathers,

"Brenda Wooten has helped me tremendously in grading my papers. She even takes them home to do!"

Mrs. Fronneau Little, "I look forward to each Tuesday because of Mary Subler. She's doing a fantastic job helping some of my students in Social Studies."

Mrs. Sherrie Fowler, "Mrs. Linda Rome has helped me tremendously. I look forward to Thursday. She helps by checking papers, preparation of materials to be used, and her dedication is much appreciated."

Mrs. Mary Accor, "Mrs. McDaniel has helped me a lot on Tuesdays. It's good to know that she cares enough to give of her time and talent in the classroom."

Gary Blake, "Billy Wease has helped tremendously in my math class. He has taken students that are below level and helped them achieve basic skills through one on one tutoring. I really appreciate his dedication in helping the students."

Mrs. Harriett Hagen, "Mrs. Jo Whetstine is a prize volunteer. She has helped with everything from writing overdue notices to helping with inventory and running the Book Sale. Her worth to the Central School library program is inestimable."

10 Class Reunions Scheduled

Gardner-Webb College's Alumni Day 1985 will be held Saturday, April 27, and this year's event will include 10 class reunions, award presentations, two meals and entertainment.

The classes participating in the reunions this year will include the classes of 1984, 1980, 1975, 1965, 1960, 1955, 1950, 1945, 1940 and 1935.

"Class committees have been working diligently toward contacting the members of each class to invite them back to Alumni Day," said Evans Whitaker, director of foundations and corporations at G-W who also handles special events.

Alumni Day 1985 will have activities to keep alumni busy from 10 a.m. until 9 p.m.

Professors Robert Blackburn, Doris Jones, Robert Lamb and Bill Stowe will be lecturing on their favorite topics to begin the day's activities.

Alumni awards will be presented at the awards luncheon. Awards include Alumnus of the Year, Service to the College, Service to the Church and Service to the Community.

"Bright Ideas for Contemporary Living," a group of one-hour seminars, will begin afternoon activities. These seminars include these topics: Family Financial Planning, Strengthening Family Relationships in the 80's, Computers in the Home and Taking Advantage of Being Single.

The Alumni Country Picnic in Bost gymnasium will follow the afternoon sessions. "Alumni can fill their 'all you can eat' plates with fried chicken, foot-long hot dogs and all the fixins'," Whitaker said.

Entertainment will be provided by the Peeler's Mill Country band at the picnic.

After dinner, Mike Cross, a singer guitarist, fiddler and songwriter will give a concert. Cross will sing ballads, country rock and folk-pop songs.

"Make sure you 'Join the Comeback' April 27," Whitaker said.

Art Exhibition Slated

The fine arts department at Gardner-Webb College will hold a student art exhibition April 26-May 2 in the Dover Memorial Library at the Boiling Springs campus.

An opening preview, open to the public at no cost, will be held in the library from 6:30-7:30 p.m. Thursday, April 25.

The exhibition will include art works by Bella Allen, Rachel Carter, Robin Carpenter, Cathy Cline, Don Donald, Wendy Hazelworth, Stephen Hise, Lynda Martens and Patty Redman.

Gardner-Webb is a liberal arts college affiliated with the Baptist State Convention degrees. The college is noted of N.C., offering associate, bachelor and master's federal funding.
