(ED. NOTE—The following devotional is an excerpt from the book "How You Can Make It", by Rev. Oscar Stalcup, pastor of Foursquare Gospel Church of Kings Mountain. Rev. Stalcup's book will be released soon.)

By Rev. Oscar Stalcup
Foursquare Gospel Church
Submit and resist from the physical standpoint seems almost paradoxical. However, just because you have been saved, you are not guaranteed victory over the enemy of your soul. Just because you are evangelical, you do not have automatic victory over the devil. Just because you are pentecostal, you do not have automatic victory over the devil. Just because you ignore the devil, he will not leave you alone. You do not get by as a Christian that easily—belonging to a certain religious order or ignoring the enemy. There is something more you must do if you are going to be a victor.

"Submit yourself therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you" (James 4:7). Submit through: reading, studying and applying the Word; humbling yourself in prayer; giving to the ministry; serving God and others; discerning your times; controlling your finances in good stewardship; and being filled with the Holy Spirit. You resist the devil in like manner: the Word; prayer; giving; discerning; controlling your finances and the Holy Spirit.

Some folks submit themselves to God; but, they never resist the devil. Others resist the devil; but, they never submit themselves to God. So, satan keeps the victory. Both conditions, submission and resistance, are necessary for victory over the devil. When you do your part, God will do His.

When you work together with God, the devil will run from you—and the Lord that is on your side. He'll actually flee; run for refuge as a fugitive. Think about it! You are not on the defensive; the devil is. You are not running; he is.

So, submit to God and resist the devil, and you will have victory over the enemy of your soul. That is HOW YOU'LL MAKE IT!

"Humble yourself in the sight of the Lord, and He will lift you up" (James 4:10).

Sometime back one of my church laymen made the following comment about an unfinished church project, "anything worth having is worth working for." Your position in the family of God, not only is worth working for, it is worth fighting for. You have a hell to shun and a heaven to gain. So, get tough. Dig in. Make a real commitment to submitting yourself to God and resisting the devil; and, he will flee from you.

Mike Cross To Perform At G-W

Singer, guitarist, fiddler, songwriter and jester Mike Cross will perform at the Gardner-Webb College campus Saturday, April 27, at 7 p.m. in the Paul Porter Arena.

Tickets are $7 per person at the door and the concert is open to the public. Tickets are also available at the Sound Shop, Bobby's Music Shop, the Shelby Chamber of Commerce and the G-W business office.

Cross's one man show offers ballads, country rock and folk-pop songs along with jokes and novelty tunes. He has recorded six albums since the start of his musical career in 1976.
