

Student Winners Honored

On April 16, the Gaston Soil and Water Conservation District honored Lori Britt, Helen Howard, and Edie Bridges at a dinner meeting for honors received in the Conservation Poster and Public Speaking Contests.

On March 23, the first place county winners in the Public Speaking, Poster, and Essay Contests, competed on the Area Level at Rowan Technical College in Salisbury, N.C. The Area Level consists of these 11 counties: Cleveland, Lincoln, Gaston, Mecklenburg, Union, Stanley, Cabarrus, Rowan, Davidson, Davie, and Iredell. Seventh grader, Edie Bridges of Bessemer City Junior High, was first place winner in the Public Speaking competition. Fifth grader, of Gardner Park Elementary, took first place honors in the Poster Contest competition; and fourth grader, Helen Howard of Gaston Day School, received 1st runner-up honors in the Poster competition. Edie Bridges and Lori Britt will go on to compete on the State Level. This competition will be held in Raleigh. The 1st place winners of the State Level competition will receive a $100.00 Savings Bond.
