

MRS. RODNEY EUGENE CAIN
(Rebecca Lynn Smith)

Smith-Cain Pair Wed
June 1 At Macedonia

Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Cain, who were wed Sat., June 1 in Macedonia Baptist Church, have returned from a wedding trip to Florida and are at home at 108 S. Tracy Street.

Miss Rebecca Lynn Smith became Mr. Cain's bride in a 2 p.m. double-ring ceremony at which Rev. Jesse Bailey officiated and which featured the lighting of the Unity candle. A 29 candle brass tree filled with spring flowers centered the church altar and was flanked by two nine branch candle trees filled with spring flowers. Other candles and palms completed the setting.

Miss Delores White was organist, Miss Donna Myers was flutist, Eric Myers was oboist, and Miss Sandy Wells was vocalist for the program of nuptial music. Miss Wells sang "Wedding Song" before the ceremony and "Wedding Prayer" as the benediction.

Henry T. Smith of Wagram, N.C. escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. The bride's gown was a formal design of white bridal satin featuring an off-the-shoulder neckline. The bodice was overlaid with Pointe de'Sprit outlined with beaded silk Venice lace. The full short sleeves were accented with Schiffli lace motifs over English net and adorned with pearls and sequins. Her fingertip veil of illusion was trimmed with Brussels lace and attached to a lace covered camelot headpiece adorned with pearls.

The bride carried an elongated colonial nosegay of pink sweetheart roses, white freesia, white daisies, white miniature carnations, Baker's fern and gypsophilia.

Mrs. Linda Jackson of Hickory, aunt of the bride, was matron of honor and Miss Debbie Whetstine of Kings Mountain was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Donna Blackburn, Miss Karla Howell, and Miss Julie Valentine, all of Kings Mountain. Nicole Jackson of Hickory was flower girl.

All the attendants wore copen blue gowns of matte taffeta styled with a natural waist and featuring a self tie belt, spaghetti straps and a full skirt. The matching removable jacket with stand up collar was enhanced with

MRS. MELVIN FRED PROCTOR
(Glenda Spearman)

Proctors
Married
June 1

Miss Glenda Darlene Spearman and Melvin Fred Proctor were united in marriage on Sat., June 1. Oak View Baptist Church provided the setting for the 6 p.m. Candlelight service.

Rev. Robbie Moore officiated at the double-ring ceremony which featured the Unity candle service. The altar of the church was decorated with arch, branch and spiral candelabras trimmed in ivy, and palms. The floral arrangement contained a mixture of rainbow colored daisies. Greenery candles with white bows decorated the windows.

A program of traditional and popular music was provided by Dean Chandler of Gastonia. Vocal selections were "Walk Hand In Hand" and "The Wedding Prayer." The groom sang "Lady" to his bride.

Glenn Spearman escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. She wore an organza Victorian gown of white with a natural waist and long, fitted sleeves. The bodice was enhanced with Alencon lace, pearls, and motifs of silk Venice. The flowing semi-cathedral train was also edged with the pencil wire ruffling and covered with elegant Alencon lace motif. The fingertip veil accented the gown with its pouf made of matching pencil wire ruffles, silk Venice and blusher. She carried a white Bible topped with red roses, baby's breath and lily of the valley.

Miss Elaine Spearman of Kings Mountain attended her sister as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Shlinda Proctor and Jayne Fredell of Kings Mountain, Sharon Thompson of Bessemer City, Dawn Covington of Rockingham and Sharon Werts of Ninety-Six, S.C. Carmen Pittman of Gastonia was flower girl. Lisa Howell attended the register.

Each of the attendants wore a long formal of dotted swiss. Each gown was a different color of the rainbow. They carried a single red rose with baby's breath.

W.T. Proctor of Kings Mountain was his son's best man. Ushers were Allen Proctor and Charles Proctor of Kings Mountain, Phil Winstead of Wilson, Don Tipton and Henry Jones of Chattanooga, Tenn. Steven Winstead of Wilson was ringbearer.

The bridegroom wore a white tuxedo with white tie and cummerbund with a red rose boutonniere. The groomsmen wore navy tuxedos with matching cummerbunds and tie and white rose boutineers.

The bride's mother wore a long formal of light blue and a corsage of white roses. The bridegroom's mother chose a long formal of pink and a corsage of white roses.
