short puffed sleeves. Their open crown hats of blue horsehair were trimmed with a ring of flowers and topped with satin bow and streamers. They carried nosegays of mixed spring flowers.

John Cain, was his son's best man and groomsmen were Chris Nations, Terry Cain, Dan Ayscue and Kevin Melton, all of Kings Mountain. Master Marcus Hanks, brother of the bride, was ringbearer.

Master Erik Hanks, brother of the bride, distributed wedding programs and Miss Brooke Douglas of Hickory distributed birdseed packets for guests to shower the bride and groom as they left the church. Mrs. Lucy Bailey directed the wedding.

The bride's mother wore a street-length gown of periwinkle georgette which featured a circular skirt, natural waist and bishop sleeves. An organza drape enhanced the V front bodice. She wore a corsage of pink roses.

The bridegroom's mother chose a suede rose organza street-length gown which featured a natural waist with a self tie belt. The draped bodice was enhanced with dyed-to-match seed pearls.

Shower Honors Denise

Miss Denise Bowen, whose wedding to Perry Nolen took place Sunday in Mount Calvary Baptist Church, was honored by her co-workers at Thermacote Welco at a surprise pantry shower during lunch break at the plant Thursday.

Cake and ice cream was served and Denise opened and displayed a variety of gifts.

She wore a corsage of pink roses.

Mrs. William Benton, grandmother of the bride, chose a royal blue dress. Mrs. Hugh Smith, grandmother of the bride, chose a blue dress and Mrs. Laylor Champion, grandmother of the bridegroom, chose a blue dress. Each of the honored guests wore a corsage of white daisies.

The bride's mother and stepfather, Lillian and Donald Hanks, hosted the reception after the ceremony in the church fellowship hall. The five-tier wedding cake was decorated with real miniature roses of pink and white and was cut and served with punch and party refreshments. The bride's table was overlaid with white lace and arranged with a centerpiece of mixed summer flowers and candles.

The bride is the daughter of Don and Lillian Hanks of Kings Mountain and Henry T. Smith of Wagram, N.C. A 1984 graduate of Kings Mountain Senior High School, she is employed by ScissorSmith and Co. of Kings Mountain. She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Benton and the late W.J. Ward of Maxton and Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Smith of Wagram.

The bridegroom is the son of John and Lorene Cain of Kings Mountain and grandson of Mrs. Laylor Champion and the late Fred Champion of Kings Mountain. He is a 1982 graduate of Kings Mountain Senior High School and is employed by Eaton Corporation.

According to a recent survey, most Americans prefer shrimp cocktail as their favorite appetizer.

Enter and win First Union's Great Vacation Getaway.

The best word to describe your First Union banking card is "convenient." Because it's good at any of First Union's 80 automated teller locations in North Carolina. So you can make balance inquiries, deposits, cash withdrawals and more, 7 days a week, 24 hours a day.

And now, your First Union banking card is more valuable than ever. Since any type of transaction you make at a 24-Hour Mini BankSM will result in an automatic entry in First Union's Great Vacation Getaway.* A great way to get a vacation. Each week, Grand Prize winners will win their choice of an all-expense-paid, 4-day/3-night trip for two to one of four exciting locations. Choose Boston to the north, Bermuda to the east, Montego Bay, Jamaica to the south or San Francisco to the west.

Plus, there are great First and Second Place Prizes each week of trips closer to home and luggage. (For complete details on First and Second Place Prizes, visit your nearest First Union Office.)

So enter today. It's simple. Just use your First Union banking card. Or stop by any First Union location and apply for one. And remember, when you're not entering the Great Vacation Getaway, you can also use your First Union banking card at over 900 locations throughout the RelaySM system. After all, the First Union banking card is so convenient it could help you write your own ticket.

*Only one bank card transaction or write-in entry per person per day will be eligible.

First Union's Great Vacation Getaway Contest Rules

Contest Period: First Union's Great Vacation Getaway contest begins on June 10, 1985 and ends at 2:00 p.m. on July 19, 1985. Winning entrants will be selected at random from all eligible First Union Mini Bank transaction entries and write-in entries made or received at a First Union branch by 2:00 p.m. each Friday. Winning entries for one (1) Grand Prize trip, one (1) First Prize trip and ten (10) Second Prize gifts will be selected each week during the contest period at a location selected by the Sponsor.

How to Enter: During the contest period: (1) complete any type of transaction at a First Union Mini Bank machine with a First Union banking card or with a card from any bank in the Relay system, OR (2) complete a write-in entry form and return it to a customer sales representative at any First Union branch office.

Eligibility: All entrants must be 18 years of age or older. Employees of First Union Corporation, its subsidiaries including First Union National Bank and its agents, and immediate family members are not eligible to win. Void where prohibited by law.

Odds of Winning: The odds of winning are determined by the number of entries received.

Conditions of Entry: One (1) completed First Union Mini Bank transaction entry OR one (1) write-in entry for each entrant per day will be eligible. Sponsor is sole judge of the eligibility of entries. No substitution of prizes is permitted. Judge's decisions final. All entries are the property of the Sponsor. Entrants not complying with these rules will be disqualified.

Notification of Winners: All winning entrants will be notified by mail and required to sign and return an Affidavit of Eligibility within ten (10) days of notification. Only one (1) prize per family or household. Prizes are nonassignable and nontransferable. Prizes must be claimed and trips must be taken by January 1, 1986. Prizes not claimed will be forfeited and not awarded. Prize winners are responsible for all applicable taxes.
