

REST HOME NEEDS VOLUNTEERS

McCleary Care Home of Kings Mountain is seeking volunteers to work with residents. Some activities include walking, singing, exercising, being read to and playing games. Anyone interested or needing more information should contact Margie McCleary at 739-5929.

KEENAGERS BENEFIT-Keenagers of Kings Mountain Baptist Church, above, plan a Craft Fair, bake sale and yard sale on Saturday, June 15th. From left, Lina Owens, Ethel Williams, Louise Roberts, Faye Bennett, Juanita Oxford, Mary Allen, Ruth Beam, Florence Dullender, Addie Bridges, Pearl McIntosh and Avalonia Weaver. Emily Brown, granddaughter of Mrs. Lina Owens, was also present at the recent meeting.

Craft Fair Is Saturday

The Keenagers of Kings Mountain Baptist Church are sponsoring a Craft Fair, Yard Sale and Bake Sale on Sat., June 15th, beginning at 7 a.m.

Handmade items include pillows, aprons, crocheted items, ceramics, wooden items, and delicious cakes, pies, and cookies will be available. All proceeds are earmarked for a Fall trip for the group.

The Youth of Kings Mountain Baptist Church will have a hotdog sale beginning at 11 a.m. and continuing until 6:30 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall. Homemade desserts will be available also. All proceeds are earmarked for camp expenses to Camp Caswell July 8-13.

Community Meeting Set

Twelve public service needs have been identified county wide as most needed to address on June 27 from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m. at a community meeting which will be held at Kings Mountain Governmental Facilities Services Center.

Child abuse and/or neglect; alcohol and drug abuse; affordable health care services for poor and elderly; not enough jobs; education for adults including job training and learning to read; specialized medical services such as treatment for head injuries, kidney dialysis, premature babies, etc.; temporary shelter for people during emergencies; adult day care for elderly and disabled adults; special homes for children with problems, including foster care; and affordable heat and electric service.

At the community meeting, members of the public will be given opportunity to give input on addressing needs as they are identified and to add additional comments.
