IN THE GOOD OLD SUMMERTIME
By RUBY M. ALEXANDER

Lush, warm weather transforms any home. The trees are fullest, the flowers brightest. Sunshine sparkles off picture windows and polished trim. White paint looks extra-white in the strong light. This is home ownership at its most pleasurable.

If you're planning to sell, now's the time. Let prospective buyers see your home at its best.

Buyers are at their best now, too. They're ready to purchase, eager to be located well before school starts. They don't have time to hem and haw over a property they like.

The best way to bring house and buyer together is with the aid of a real estate professional. Our experts have qualified the prospects who come to us. We know what they want and can afford. We won't waste your time with people who are "just looking" or families who need more house—or less—than you're selling.

Make the most of your house this summer. If you want to sell, list NOW at Alexander Realty.

Cakecutting Honors Couple

Miss Denise Bowen and Perry Nolen were honored after their wedding rehearsal Saturday evening at a cakecutting at the Kings Mountain Depot Center.

A motif of rainbow colors was featured in decorative details to carry out the theme of the wedding in which bridesmaids were gowned in colors of the rainbow.

The bride's table, highlight of decoration, was overlaid with lace over green cloth and held the three tiered wedding cake as highlight. The cake was topped with a bridal figurine and arranged with rainbow colored flowers. The table was caught up with rainbow colored wedding bells with an arrangement of rainbow colored flowers. Punch was served from a crystal service at one end of the table and party pickups were served from silver appointments. Assisting in serving refreshments were the bridegroom-elect's aunts, Mrs. Mary Pearson of Kings Mountain and Mrs. Mildred Shytle of Blacksburg, S.C. and sister of the bridegroom, Mrs. Renae Colvin of Bessemer City.

Paige Colvin and Robin Goforth kept the register at the cakecutting.

Sabettis Host BBQ

Mr. and Mrs. Louie Sabetti entertained at their home on Hillside Drive on June 19th at a "Barbecue Round Up" honoring Laura Herndon and Chip McGill, whose wedding takes place Saturday.

Members of the wedding party, along with parents of the bridal couple, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Herndon and Mr. and Mrs. N.F. McGill, Jr., and Laura's grandmother, Mrs. W. Lawrence Logan, enjoyed barbecue with all the trimmings on the deck of the Sabetti home.

Red checked tablecloths overlaid the tables from which dinner was served. Red geraniums featured the decorations on individual patio tables.

The Sabettis took the occasion to present the engaged pair with crystal wine glasses in their chosen pattern as their wedding gift. Miss Herndon was also presented a corsage of white flowers with red checked bows.

It's A Girl For Harrises

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Douglas Harris of 315 Oakwood Estates, Anderson, S.C., announce the birth of their first child, a girl, Morgan Whitney, Tuesday, June 18, Anderson Hospital. The baby weighed eight pounds, seven ounces.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Gene Harris of Kings Mountain and the late Mr. and Mrs. John Todd of Kingstree, S.C. and great-grandparents are Mrs. Eunice Moss of Kings Mountain and Mrs. Eloise Harris of Cherokee Falls, S.C.

Mrs. Harris is the former Carol Todd of Kingstree, S.C.
