

Mary Dixon Howell, 75, Surprised On Her Birthday

Mrs. Mary Dixon Howell was surprised on her 75th birthday with a covered dish luncheon at Temple Baptist Church hosted by members of her family.

Eighty friends and relatives honored the well known Kings Mountain citizen on June 16th.

Mrs. Howell's son, Arthur Howell, of Iowa Park, Texas, and his family came home especially for the occasion. It had been 17 years since the Texas Howells had been able to return for a family get-together.

Other children of Mrs.

Howell are Nancy Laughridge of Gastonia, Fred Howell of Kings Mountain, Ruby Peninger of Durham. The family also includes 11 grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Howell's sister, Mrs. Mammie Bell, baked the pink and white horseshoe shaped birthday cake which was topped with 75 and "Happy Birthday Mary." The cake was cut and served for dessert.

Mrs. Howell retired from Osage Manufacturing Company in Bessemer City and since retirement has had more time to devote to her crochet and crafts and is also active in Temple Baptist Church and the Senior Citizens Program. She was born and reared in Kings Mountain and resides at 130 North City Street.

Cookout Honors Bridal Couples

Laura Laine Herndon and William Dickey (Chip) McGill, who were married June 29th, and Katherine Anne McGill and Jonathan Elliott Taylor, who were also married June 29th, were honored at a cookout given by Elizabeth McGill at her home at 703 Hillside Drive.

Katherine and Elizabeth were suitmates at Erskine College.

Guests were greeted at the door by the hostess.

An arrangement of magnolia blossoms in a brass pitcher graced the foyer. Elizabeth's friends were served from a buffet in the family room, centered with Williamsburg hurricane chimneys decorated with sweetpeas and greenery.

Guests dined by candlelight on the back porch and found their places at round tables overlaid with large yellow and white checked cloths trimmed with white rick rack. Williamsburg hurricane chimneys adorned with sweetpeas centered each table.

The hostess took the occasion to present the honored guests wedding gifts in their chosen pattern.

Cookout Honors Nancy Lee

Miss Elizabeth McGill, her parents, Dr. and Mrs. John C. McGill and Mrs. Frances Sincox, entertained together Friday night at a cookout at the McGill home on Hillside Drive honoring Miss Nancy Lee, whose wedding to Michael Bryant takes place in August.

Fifteen guests dined by candlelight at round tables set up on the porch of the McGill home and decorated with yellow and white checked cloths and centered with hurricane Williamsburg globes, sweetpeas and greenery. Queen Anne's lace and sweetpeas decorated the buffet table in the family room.

Hamburgers were served with all the trimmings.

In lieu of a corsage, the hosts presented Miss Lee with a brass pineapple key holder and also took the occasion to present the bride-elect with wedding crystal in her pattern.

Miss Lee wore a hot pink sundress and white accessories.

Present as special guests were Dr. and Mrs. Joe Lee, parents of the bride-elect.

CARD OF THANKS

This thank you goes to the many churches as well as individuals who paused for a prayer that Shaun Grier might recover from injuries received in an automobile accident June 8, 1985. We also want to thank you for the gifts as well as visits and ask your continued prayers for good health, wisdom and knowledge from above. God bless you all.
