Carmen, Tessie
Attend G-W Camp

Carmen Smith and Tessie Ruff attended the Bulldog Basketball Camp at Gardner-Webb College last week. Both girls were selected to the All-Star team. During the week, they learned to master the fundamentals of basketball, offensive and defensive skills and gained valuable experience by playing against some of the county's best competition. Carmen won the best defensive player award for her league. Tessie and two other participants were awarded the Three on Three Award.

Net Tournament
Planned At KMHS

The Kings Mountain Invitational Tennis Tournament will be played July 19-21 at the Kings Mountain High courts. Entry fee is $2. Tennis balls will be provided. Winners in each division will receive gift certificates. The tournament is open to girls, boys, men and women. There will be competition in 12-under boys and girls (intermediate and beginners), boys and girls 13-14 intermediate, men's and women's adult-15 (intermediate and advanced), and adult-15 mixed doubles. To register, call Suzy Holtzclaw at 484-3417 or Pat Huffstetler at 739-5706. Players will be advised of their first match time by telephone. Entry fees are due at the first match.
