register and Miss Casey Blankin of Blacksburg distributed scrolls.

White candelabra enhanced with ivy and holding lighted cathedral tapers illuminated the altar. The couple lit a unity candelabrum while kneeling on a kneeling bench.

Escorted and given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white bridal satin featuring a victorian neckline and her great-grandmother's Cameo brooch. The fitted bodice covered in Alencon lace topped with pearls on sequins, leg of mutton sleeves and satin bows on shoulders. The flared skirt was chapel length edged with galloon lace with pearls on sequins. The chapel length veil of illusion of net edged with galloon lace with pearls on sequins attached to a satin head band and alencon lace. The gown and veil was designed and made by the bride and her mother. The bride carried a bouquet of summer flowers with baby's breath and ivy.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was her sister, Miss Pamela Wray of Blacksburg. Her gown of pastel pink of crepe-backed satin had fitted bodice and flared skirt with puff sleeves with bows on the shoulders. She carried a bouquet of summer flowers.

Bridesmaid was Miss Lisa Trusty of Blacksburg. Her gown and bouquet was like that of the honor attendant.

Miss Courtney Blankin of Blacksburg, flower girl, wore a dress of pastel pink of crepe backed satin, designed with fitted bodice with short puff sleeves and sweetheart neckline. She carried a white basket filled with rose petals accented with a pink bow and streamers.

Master Charles A. Canipe, cousin of the bride, of Kings Mountain was ring bearer.

Deane Mullinax of Gaffney served as best man and Teddy Smith of Kings Creek served as usher.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles William Wray of Blacksburg and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hugh Canipe of Kings Mountain and Mrs. Eunice Wray, and the late James Wray, of Blacksburg.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Mullinax of Gaffney and grandson of Mrs. Edna Shell of Gaffney.

Following the ceremony the bride's parents and family hosted a reception. The tables were covered with lace cloths and a pink and white color scheme was carried out. Serving dishes from the bride's grandmothers and great-grandmother were used. A three-tier white wedding cake was decorated with pink flowers and love birds, with a bride and groom on top as a center piece.

After a wedding trip to the Western North Carolina Mountains Mr. and Mrs. Scott Mullinax will make their home at Route 3, Blacksburg.

Following the wedding rehearsal Saturday the bride's parents hosted a cookout for the wedding party. The bride chose the occasion to present gifts to her attendants.

On Sunday, June 2, the bride-elect was honored with a drop-in miscellaneous shower at the Antioch Community Center given by Joyce Fowler, Hazel Canipe, Barbara Moss and Pam Wray. She received many useful gifts from the guests who called between the hours of 2 and 4 p.m.

On Sunday, June 23, Miss Wray was honored with a linen shower given by the Antioch Current Mission Group. The honoree received many lovely gifts from guests who called between the hours of 2:30-4 p.m.
