Bulldog Schedule Announced

BOILING SPRINGS - Gardner-Webb basketball coach, Jim Wiles has released his 1985-86 basketball schedule. The Bulldogs begin play at home against Mt. Olive on Friday, November 15 in the 5000 seat Paul Porter Arena.

"I consider this to be our best, most interesting and toughest schedule since I've been at Gardner-Webb," replied Wiles. "Our home schedule is especially interesting with 17 home games including 6 on Saturday nights."

Highlighting the schedule is the WBTV Carolina Classic. The Classic, which brings together many of the best small college teams in North and South Carolina, has been dominated by the Runnin' Bulldogs. Gardner-Webb has won the tournament six times in the ten years its been held.

Other highlights include the Rotary Dixie Classic at Gardner-Webb on November 18-19 and the Hickory Rotary Classic November 29-30 at Lenoir-Rhyne. Gardner-Webb has added home and home contests with Elon and past rival Limestone and will continue series with Wingate, Lenoir-Rhyne, Belmont Abbey, Mars Hill and Catawba.

Bus Trips To UNC-CH Scheduled

The Cleveland County Alumni Chapter of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill has scheduled chartered bus trips to two Tar Heel football games this season.

The first will be the North Carolina-Georgia Tech clash in Atlanta Oct. 5.

Cost for the trip is $140 per couple, $97 per person, which includes round-trip transportation, game ticket, overnight accommodations at the Colony Square Hotel and refreshments during the drive.

The bus will leave the Shelby Law Enforcement Center at 5:30 a.m. Oct. 5 and depart from Atlanta at noon Oct. 6.

Cleveland County alumni will travel to the UNC-Duke contest in Chapel Hill Nov. 23. Cost is $40 per person, which includes transportation, game ticket, alumni mixer, dinner at the Carolina Inn and refreshments.

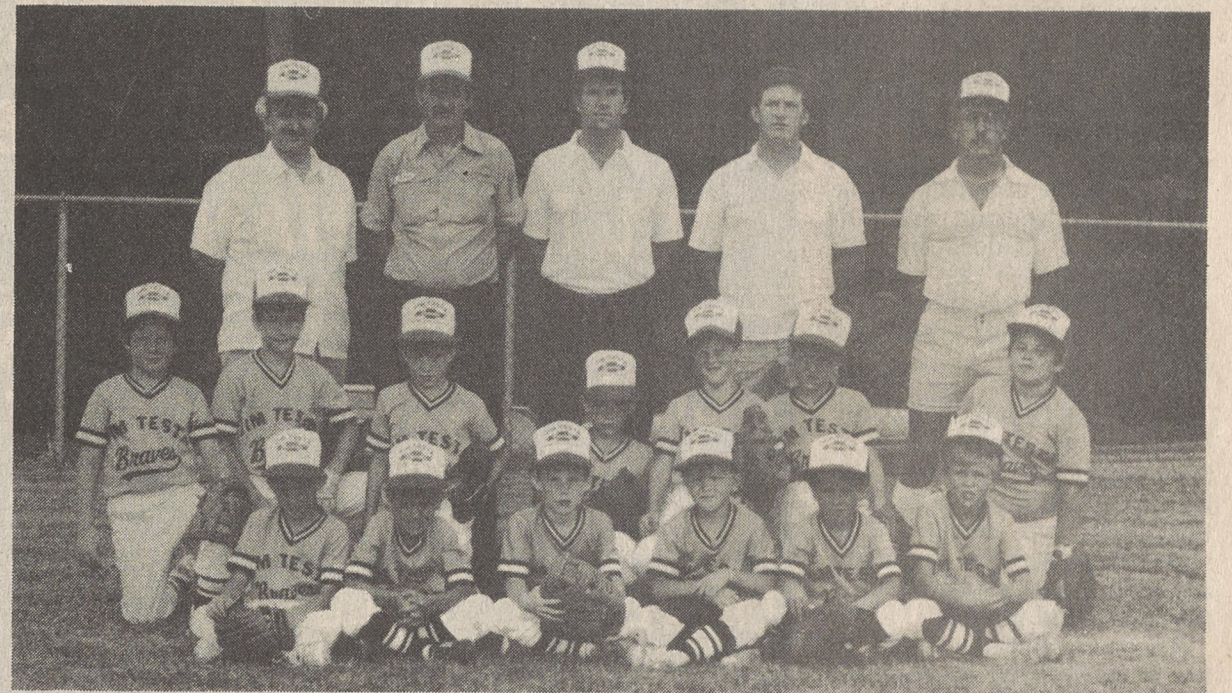

The bus will leave from Shelby at 7:30 a.m.

Space for both trips is limited. Reservations will be accepted on a first come, first served basis with General Alumni Association members receiving priority. To make a reservation, contact Bob Kiger, P.O. Box 1739, Shelby, N.C. 28151. Checks, to be received on or before July 25, should be payable to the UNC Alumni Chapter.

For more information, call Kiger at (704) 482-1492 days or (704) 487-4519 evenings.
