

Burglary Charges Lodged

First degree burglarly charges have been lodged against a Kings Mountain man who was arrested Sunday morning by Kings Mountain Police minutes after a local doctor surprised the suspect in his den and chased him from his residence.

Det. James Camp and Sgt. Houston Corn arrested Richard Allen Phillips, 23, of 206 Maner Road, after he allegedly walked into the house of Dr. Thomas Durham, 358 Edgemont Drive. Police said Dr. Durham chased the suspect out of his den at 2:30 a.m. and called police.

Camp said the defendant posted $5,000 bond on Monday. Preliminary hearing will be held in Cleveland District Court but Camp said trial date has not been set.
