

Schneiders Wed Saturday

Mr. and Mrs. Kevin John Schneider, who were wed Saturday, are on a wedding trip and afterwards will be at home in Taylors, South Carolina.

Miss Ellen Dawn Bridges became Mr. Schneider's bride in a 2 p.m. wedding in Carson Memorial Baptist Church in the Crowder's Mountain Community.

Rev. Jack Beals, pastor of Emmanuel Baptist Church of Brockton, Mass., heard the couple exchange vows of the double-ring ceremony in the impressive Unity candle ceremony.

Miss Edie Bridges, cousin of the bride, was pianist for the program of nuptial music, Mrs. Doris Terry, aunt of the bride, was organist, and Miss Tina Bridges, sister of the bride, and Scott Morrison of Gastonia were vocalists and sang the duets, "Together", "Lord Send Us Anywhere" and "A Tender Heart."

The altar of the church was arranged with an arch of summer flowers and tapers in wrought-iron candelabra with a central arrangement of lavender flowers and a white kneeling bench completing the candlelight setting.

Bobby G. Bridges escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. The bride's wedding gown was a formal design of white organza styled with a Queen Ann neckline, natural waist, and bishop sleeves. The bodice and cuffs of the gown were adorned in Chantilly lace and pearls. The full skirt fell into a semi-cathedral train trimmed in a cascade of Chantilly lace and organza ruffles. A cap of silk Venise lace and pearls held her matching waltz length veil of illusion which was trimmed with pearl scallops. She carried a bouquet of white roses.

MRS. KEVIN SCHNEIDER
(Dawn Bridges)

Miss Tina Bridges of Kings Mountain attended her sister as maid of honor and bridesmaids were Mrs. Sharon Land of Kings Mountain and Mrs. Charlotte Burks of Greenville, S.C., sisters of the bride, and Miss Junice Swindell and Miss Jennifer Swindell of Apopka, Fla., cousins of the bride. Brianna McNamara of Carver, Mass. was flower girl.

All the attendants wore long orchid colored formals in old-fashioned styling with on-or-off shoulder neckline, short sleeves and very full skirts worn over hoops and crinolines. They carried summer fans arranged with an white orchid.

Aaron Bridges, cousin of the bride, carried the rings. Christopher Schneider of Tampa, Fla. was his brother's best man.

Groomsmen were Dwayne Burks of Greenville, S.C. and Jamie Land of Kings Mountain, brothers-in-law of the bride, Chuck Nelson of Meadville, Pa. and Dean Schaffer of Greenville, S.C.

Miss Donna Lewallen of Dallas kept the bride's register.

The bride's mother chose a street-length dress of dark rose with a corsage of silk roses.

The bridegroom's mother chose a light pink street-length dress and a corsage of silk roses.

After the ceremony the bride's parents entertained at a beautifully-appointed reception in the church fellowship hall where the orchid theme of the wedding was carried out in decorative details. A five-tiered wedding cake decorated in varying shades of lavender and white centered the bride's table, highlight of decoration. The tiers were enhanced by stairways holding miniature figurines representing members of the bridal party with the top stair holding the bride and bridegroom figurine. Fresh flowers topped the cake. Miss Linda Lewallen of Dallas, assisted by Mrs. Mary Champion of Kings Mountain, served the cake to guests. Misses Kim Terry, Beth Terry and Candy Morris served punch. Lavender over white cloths overlaid the punch, cake, and refreshment tables. Summer flowers in lavender and white decorated the hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Bobby G. Bridges of the Carson Memorial Church Community, are parents of the bride who is granddaughter of Jake Bridges of Kings Mountain and the late Mrs. Bridges and Mr. and Mrs. Dock Terry of Gastonia. She is a graduate of Hunter Huss High School of Gastonia and is a senior student at Bob Jones University in Greenville, S.C. where she is pursuing a B.S. degree in elementary education.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Schneider of North Carver, Mass. He is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Schneider of North Carver, Mass. and is a graduate of Marshville High School. He received his B.A. in religion in May from Bob Jones University in Greenville, S.C. and will be working on his master's degree in Bible this fall.

community involvement. Contestants are judged on poise, personality, grooming, and a speech or talent presentation, as well as scholastic and civic achievements. Entrants must have an '80' or better grade average and document at least ten (10) hours volunteer service to a community or charitable organization.

The statewide "Modern Miss" competition is coordinated at the Modern Miss National Office, Box 160, Celina, Tennessee 38551-9989.

Turn To Page 3-B

Carrolls Note 25th Anniversary

David E. and Valiree W. Carroll celebrated their silver wedding anniversary Sunday, August 4th, at a reception from 2:30 until 4 p.m. in Putnam Memorial Baptist Church Fellowship Hall.

Entertaining together were Renee Carroll, Kim and Phil Jones and Thelma Watterson.

The refreshment table, highlight of decoration, was overlaid with a lace tablecloth and held a blue fountain, an arrangement of mixed roses and a 25th anniversary cake of yellow roses and blue flowers. Refreshments of punch, mints, chips, open-faced sandwiches, nuts, orange balls, spread and crackers, and cake squares of blue and green were served.

A decorated table held photographs of the honored couple from childhood to their wedding day and to the present.

Also assisting in serving refreshments were Mary Davis, Jean Toney and Lisa Benfield.

One hundred friends called.

MRS. RANDOLPH HERMAN HARRY
(Kristen Jean Hagen)

Hagen-Harry Vows Spoken Saturday At Grace Church

Grace United Methodist Church provided the setting Saturday for a 1 p.m. exchange of wedding vows uniting Miss Kristen Jean Hagen and Randolph Herman Harry in marriage.

Rev. Manuel Wortman, of Wesley Foundation in Chapel Hill, heard the exchange of vows in the impressive double-ring ceremony.

Mrs. Dan Howe of Gastonia and a string quartet of musicians presented the wedding music.

The altar of the church was decorated with bouquets of roses and carnations and enhanced by lighted tapers in spiral candelabra.

Dr. Milton M. Hagen escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. The bride's wedding gown was a formal design of ivory and candlelight taffeta fashioned with sweetheart neckline, three quarter length melon sleeves and full skirt enhanced by a cathedral train. The bride hand-embroidered sequins and pearls all over the bodice, around the neckline and sleeves and on the skirt which ended in a ruffled hemline and train. Her full length veil of illusion was attached to a tiara of seed pearls and sequins and she carried a bouquet of pink roses and baby's breath.

Mrs. Priscilla Hambricht King of Grover attended the bride as matron of honor and bridesmaids were Mrs. Laura Harden of Chapel Hill, Miss Lynne Hardy of High Point and Miss Kathryn Ellicott of Troy, Ala., cousin of the bride.

All the attendants wore long rose colored taffeta formals with fitted waistlines and very full skirts. Puff sleeves with bows extending from the shoulders to the elbows enhanced the dresses. They carried long-stemmed pink roses.

Paul Shuler of Troy, Ohio, cousin of the bride, carried the rings. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Brian Shuler of Troy, Ohio.

Best man for the bridegroom was his brother, John William Harry of Moyock, N.C. Groomsmen were Daniel Stonecypher of Moyock, David Sawyer of Raleigh and Sidney Lowe of Moyock.

The bride's mother wore a light blue taffeta street-length dress featuring a lace overblouse and a corsage of roses.

The bridegroom's mother chose a rose linen street-length dress and a corsage of roses.

Erik and Troy Hagen, brothers of the bride, distributed the wedding programs. Miss Nancy Rikard presided at the bride's register.

After the ceremony the bride's parents entertained at a beautifully appointed wedding reception in the church fellowship hall where the rose theme of the wedding was carried out in decorative details. Assisting the Hagens in receiving and entertaining was Mrs. Jo Ellis, who directed the wedding. Mrs. Al Crawford cut and served the wedding cake and Misses Susan Yarbrow and Kathy McDaniel served punch.

The bride's table, highlight of decoration, was overlaid

Turn To Page 2-B

Amy In State Finals

Miss Amy Michelle Stewart, 16, daughter of Ms. Janelle Whisnant and the late Johnny Stewart of Kings Mountain has been selected for competition in the Modern Miss State Finals to be held at the Adam's Mark in Charlotte, at 8:00 p.m. on November 23 and 24.

"Modern Miss" has selected outstanding young women from all over the state to participate in the activities. The program is designed to recognize young women, 13 to 18, who excel in scholastic achievement and

AMY STEWART

MR. AND MRS. DAVID E. CARROLL