Three KM Golfers Place

Three Kings Mountain golfers placed in their age divisions in the annual Cleveland County Junior Tournament last week at River Bend Golf Course near Shelby.

Robbie Wilson shot a 84-90-174 to finish third in the 12-13 age group; Brad Wilson shot 80-82-162 to finish third in the 14-15 age division; and Matt Heavner shot a 39-40-79 to take third place in the 10-11 age group.

Tee Burton, a Crest High School golfer, won the title with a 71-70-141 in the 16-17 year old group. Jamie Belcher of Kings Mountain finished fifth with a 187.

Other Kings Mountain golfers participating included Rusty Bumgardner, who shot a 85-84-169 for fourth place in the 14-15 division; Jay Richardson, who shot a 95-86-181 for fifth place in the 12-13 division; and Jody Richardson, who shot a 89-101-190 for eighth place in the 12-13 division.

Racing Slated At Concord

CONCORD, NC—The hobby and super stock drivers at Concord Speedway missed their night in the spotlight last Saturday when rains forced postponement of a special racing program featuring those two rough and tumble divisions.

But drivers in those classes will get their chance this Saturday night with 40-lap main events on tap for each division with the winners carting home $500 each. Racing starts at 8 p.m.

The hobby and super stock classes usually race for 20 laps each Saturday night.

Among the drivers expected to be on hand in the hobby division are Jeff Miller, Doug Efird, Timmy Sigmon, Donald Link and Mack Haywood.

Some top contenders in the super stock class are expected to be Larry Benz, Ray Hoggard, John Rary, William Gladden, Billy Gladden and Daniel White.

Sharing the spotlight Saturday will be the exotic late model sportsman wedge cars and the semi-modified division.

A 40-lap main event paying $1,500 to win is scheduled for the late models with the semi-
