

MORGANS ORGANIZE MISSION—Rev. and Mrs. Clifton E. Morgan, Jr., above, have organized Wayside Church of the Living God on Shelby Road, a mission of Trinity Church of the Living God. First services in the church will begin with Sunday School at 9:45 a.m. this Sunday.

Small Church Seminar Slated At Gardner-Webb

BOILING SPRINGS, N.C. Learners, whose membership consists of practicing ministers, was established by the B.E. Morris Academy for Christian studies at G-W for the purpose of providing ministers with an opportunity to study with prominent religious leaders and other specialists.

The seminar will be held at the Boiling Springs campus in room 113 of the Charles I. Dover building. The cost is $5 for non-members of Lifelong Learners.

Gary E. Fraley of the rural-urban missions department with the home mission board of the Southern Baptist Convention, will be the seminar leader. He will discuss financial security for pastors, dealing with conflict, and what is outdated and what is new in relation to small churches.

The Fellowship of Lifelong Learners, whose membership consists of practicing ministers, was established by the B.E. Morris Academy for Christian studies at G-W for the purpose of providing ministers with an opportunity to study with prominent religious leaders and other specialists.

Subjects discussed at the organization's monthly meetings include current issues facing ministers as well as various biblical topics. The annual membership fee is $50.

For more information about Lifelong Learners or the upcoming seminar, contact Garland Hendricks at Gardner-Webb College Boiling Springs, N.C. 28017 or (704) 434-2361.

David Baptist Choir To Perform Sunday

August 25th, at the 11:00 a.m. services, David Baptist Church Choir will present the musical "We Are So Blessed" by Gloria and Bill Gaither. This is a musical of Praise and Thanksgiving.

"We Are So Blessed" is dedicated to the many believers throughout the ages who have discovered that the

God Keeps Promises, Christians Should Too

There is no valley so dark that our Lord cannot find a way through it. However difficult the problem or grievous the affliction, he will give us strength to enable us to bear it.

May our faithfulness be exercised by studying God's word, prayer, and walking daily in the light of his council.

unsearchable riches of Christ are not to be found in the temporal trappings that surround us, but in the great promises of, "a pardon for sin, a peace that endures, God's own dear presence to cheer and to guide, strength for today and bright hope for tomorrow," said Rev. Brian Taule, Pastor.

Richard Bacon, District Manager for H&R Block in Gaston and Cleveland Counties has recently returned from the corporate offices of H&R Block in Kansas City, Mo. where he attended the 1985 Management Skills Seminars. During the week-long meeting, Bacon, with other H&R Block managers from across the U.S. and Canada, discussed "Issues In Leadership" and other topics related to Block's goal of providing client service, a quality product and a reasonable price through a teamwork approach. Bacon is pictured here on the left, receiving his certificate of accomplishment from Harry Buckley, vice-president in charge of field operations.
