

Fair Scheduled In September

The 38th annual Bethware Community Fair will be held Sept. 2-7 on the grounds of Bethware School and plans for the event are underway by the sponsoring Bethware Progressive Club.

A big barbecue will kick off Fair Week and will be held on Aug. 31 from 11 a.m. until 6:30 p.m. at Bethware School. Tickets are on sale at $3.50 from any member of the club, says Progressive Club President Glenn Hicks.

Fair catalogs and premium lists were distributed to fair advertisers and patrons this week. The fair catalog included a dedication to the late Frank Hamrick, who died Feb. 12, who was long active in the Progressive Club. The book also contains a picture of Miss Bethware Fair 1985, Edie Hicks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Hicks.

As customary, cash prizes will go to exhibitors. Hardin Amusements will provide rides on the midway and concessions will be operated by Bethware Progressive Club with drawings on Friday and Saturday nights for $100 cash. Tractorpull rigs will be exhibited by Roger Goforth and Berry Brothers and an exhibit of farm machinery will be featured. Fair exhibits will include canned items, pantry and dairy supplies, household arts, a flower department, arts, crafts and hobbies. Mrs. Lillie Mae Jones is chairman of the committee on entries which includes Mrs. Vivian Lovelace, Miss Gwen Hicks, Mrs. Joan Harmon, Mrs. Susan Putnam, Mrs. Carolyn Hicks, Mrs. Barbara Crofts and Mrs. Nadine Davis.

Family nights are Tuesday and Thursday, starting at 6 p.m.

Entries will be received in the Bethware gymnasium on Monday, Sept. 2 from 9 a.m. until 8 p.m. and on Tuesday, Sept. 3, from 10 a.m. until 8 p.m. The Fair will open at 6 p.m. each day Monday through Saturday and at 3 p.m. on Sat., Sept. 7. The fair will close at midnight on Sept. 7th. There will be drawings for prizes nightly.

Officers of the Fair include Glenn Hicks, president; Charles Dover, vice president; Jerry Crofts, secretary; Raeford White, treasurer; Jim Yarbrow, assistant treasurer; Charles Scism, manager; Stokes Wright, exhibit manager; Glenn Hicks, grounds superintendent; parking,
