Wray-Dixon Couple Wed In Blacksburg Ceremony

Miss Pamela Jean Wray and Joseph Guess Dixon were united in marriage at Buffalo Baptist Church in Blacksburg, S.C. on September 7 at 7 p.m. The Rev. Randy Helms was officiating minister in the candlelight doubling ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles William Wray, and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hugh Canipe of Kings Mountain, and Mrs. Eunice Wray and the late James Wray of Blacksburg.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Dixon, Jr. of Blacksburg. Mrs. Robyn Dixon of Wilford, presided at the guest register.

Brass candelabras enhanced with ivy and holding lighted cathedral tapers illuminated the altar. The couple lit a Unity Candle after kneeling on a kneeling bench. Baskets holding arrangements of various white flowers complimented the setting. The windows were enhanced with hurricane globes and mauve candles accented with ivy.

A prelude of nuptial music was rendered by the pianist, Kyle Wilson. Mrs. Betty Floyd sang, "Love Will Grow" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Escorted and given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of ivory bridal satin, featuring a fitted bodice with victorian neckline and yoke of alencon lace accented with a rose applique. The long Juliet sleeves, fitted from elbows to wrists, were enhanced with a rose applique and matching lace. The flowing skirt extended into a cathedral train edged with Valenciennes lace and rose appliques.

Complimenting the brides gown was a cathedral length veil of bridal illusion edged with narrow Valenciennes lace attached to a crown accented with pearls, petals, and cut crystals.
