

Parties, Showers Honor Amy Elmore, Mr. Crawford

Amy Elmore, who was married Saturday to Steve Crawford, was honored at several events prior to the wedding.

Mrs. George Winecuff, Joanna Winecuff, Mrs. Scott Key and Kathryn Key hosted a kitchen shower at the Winecuff home on Aug. 15th, where Amy received many useful gifts. Guests included Mrs. W.G. Elmore, Jr., mother of the bride, and Mrs. James C. Crawford, Sr., mother of the bridegroom.

On Aug. 17th Mr. and Mrs. Ken Jenkins and Dr. and Mrs. R.E. Quinn were hosts at a pool side dinner at the Quinn home on Jackson Road in Gastonia. Tables held arrangements of mixed garden flowers in pastel colors. Guests included the wedding party, the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. W.G. Elmore, Jr., grandparents of the bride Mr. and Mrs. W.G. Elmore, Jr., the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James C. Crawford, Sr., of Kings Mountain, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Phillips and Mr. and Mrs. Mike Cobb. The hosts presented their wedding gift to the bridal couple at this time.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Dixon, Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Dixon, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ballard and Mayor and Mrs. John Moss entertained at a lovely barbecue dinner on Aug. 25th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Dixon, Gaston Street, Kings Mountain. The entrance was beautifully decorated in the wedding colors of royal blue, shades of green and medium blue thistles. The guests were seated at tables decorated with matching colors of garden flowers.

The hostess chose this time to present their wedding gift of Jefferson Pewter cups to the bridal couple. Jeff and Sharon Putnam entertained the guests with a lovely song fest.

On Sept. 17th Amy was honored with a lingerie shower given by Mrs. Scott Elmore, Mrs. Michael Elmore and Mrs. Bill Teague at the Scott Elmore home on Rivermont Drive, Gastonia.

The brides corsage was a red rose surrounded by gypsophilia.

Mrs. Raymond Talbert, Mrs. Billy Talbert and Miss Jane Talbert hosted a tea on Sunday afternoon, Sept. 15th, at Miss Talbert's home on Suzanne Street, Kings Mountain. The home was decorated with roses in mixed shades of pink. The bride-elect was given a corsage of pink roses and gypsophilia. Out-of-town guests included the brides' mother Mrs. W.G. Elmore, Jr., her grandmother, Mrs. W.G. Elmore, Sr. of Gastonia and Mrs. Bill Teague of Charlotte.

The bridesmaids luncheon was given at the Gaston Country Club by Mrs. Ann Holfeld, Miss Barbara Holfeld and Mrs. Doris Keller on Friday, Sept. 19th. The club was beautifully decorated with gerber daisies, miniature carnations, alstrameria lilies and mixed foliage in the bridal colors. Amy's corsage was made of matching lilies.

The bride-elect chose this time to present gifts to her attendants. Special guest were Mrs. James Crawford, Sr., mother of the groom and Mrs. W.G. Elmore, Jr., mother of the bride, Mrs. W.G. Elmore, Sr., grandmother of the bride, Mrs. Linda Elmore and Mrs. Phyllis Dilling, aunts of the bride.

The groom's parents entertained at a rehearsal dinner at the Kings Mountain Holiday Inn.

Tables were decorated with burgandy, pink and cranberry silk arrangements centered with a cranberry candle.

The bride-elect wore a gardenia with pink sweetheart roses and the groom's boutonniere was a gardenia.

The Wedding Breakfast was given by Amy's grandfather, Marshall Dilling, Sr., her uncle, Marshall Dilling, Jr., and aunt, Mrs. Michael Conrad at the Gastonia City Club.

The tables were covered with mauve pink cloths and held arrangements of gerber daisies, orchid daisies and cork screw willow in egg planters.

Mr. Dilling gave a beautiful toast to the bridal couple and the hosts and hostess presented them with a silver tray as a wedding gift.
