

Sen. Gore To Speak At Vance-Aycock Dinner

U.S. Senator Albert Gore, Jr. (D-TN) will be the featured speaker at the Democrats' 25th Annual Vance-Aycock Dinner in Asheville on Saturday, October 5, announced Democratic Chairman Wade Smith.

"We're so pleased to have Senator Gore," said Smith. "He represents the bright, innovative, forward-looking Southern Democrats who are playing an ever larger role in directing our nation and our party. His hard work, thoughtfulness and intellect have won him the respect of

Battle Events To Be Retraced

The Over-mountain Victory Trail Association will retrace for the 11th consecutive year the events leading to the defeat of Colonel Patrick Ferguson in the Battle of Kings Mountain on October 7, 1780. The 14-day march began on September 24 when the marchers set out from Dunn's Meadow near Abingdon, Virginia.

These modern-day patriots will follow the original route and arrive at Quaker Meadows near Morganton, North Carolina where they will converge with a contingent from Wilkes County and Surry Counties, North Carolina. They will be joined by additional participants along the route, arriving at Cowpens National Battlefield on October 6. The marchers will leave Cowpens National Battlefield on the morning of October 7 for their final trek to Kings Mountain. The marchers will arrive at Kings Mountain National Military Park at 3:00 p.m., the time in which the battle began on October 7, 1789. Upon arrival of the marchers, a special program commemorating the 205th Anniversary of the Battle of Kings Mountain will be held in the park amphitheater.

On Saturday, October 5, and Sunday, October 6, you can experience the activities of military camp life during the 18th century. The Guilford Militia, a group dedicated to bringing back a part of history and heritage to the public, will recreate the activities of an 18th century muster.

As with today's National Guard, civilian males were mustered several times a year to be trained as a military unit. These musters were necessary because the militia units needed discipline and a standard drill before joining the Continental forces as they did in such battles as Cowpens and Guilford Courthouse. However in most cases these rugged individuals were at their best when skirmishing on their own as was the case at the Battle of Kings Mountain, where a group of Patriot militia defeated a better trained Loyalist force under Colonel Patric Ferguson.

The encampment will not only feature military drilling with musket and rifle demonstrations, but will also offer several camp life activities which include: camp cooking, basket weaving, bullet and button molding, revolutionary medicine, and other 18th century crafts. Saturday's events will begin at 11:00 a.m. and end at 5:00 p.m. Sunday's activities will begin at 9:00 a.m. and last until 4:00 p.m.

Also on October 5 and 6, the Broad River Genealogical Society will be set up in the Visitor Center to give people information on how to research their family ancestors. The society will have materials on hand which may provide you with the lead that you have been needing to find that lost ancestor.

There is no charge for the event. The public is invited and encouraged to attend!

liberals and conservatives alike."

First elected to the U.S. House of Representatives in 1976, Gore quickly distinguished himself for his command of a wide range of issues, from arms control to organ transplants. Gore bucked the Reagan tide last year to be elected to the U.S. Senate with 61% of the vote. Gore will be the keynote speaker at the Vance-Aycock Dinner, which begins at 7:00 p.m. on Saturday, October 5 at the Grove Park Inn in Asheville. Tickets for the dinner are $50 and can be purchased from North Carolina Democratic Headquarters at 919-821-2777. Gore will also attend a 5:00 p.m. reception for Vance-Aycock sponsors.

The Vance-Aycock celebration begins with a 9:00 breakfast at the Grove Park Inn. It is sponsored by the Buncombe County Democratic Women and will feature Congressman Charlie Rose of Fayetteville. Democratic County chairs will meet at 1:00 p.m. and the Council of State will host an open reception from 3:00 until 5:00 p.m. Both of these events will take place at the Grove Park Inn. For more information on any of these events, please call Democratic headquarters in Raleigh at 919-821-2777.
