Kay Smith To Give Contest

Kay DeKalb Smith will be in concert this Sunday at First Baptist Church of Kings Mountain. During the 11 a.m. morning worship service she will bring several musical selections. The 7 p.m. evening service will be a special concert program by Mrs. Smith.

Mrs. Smith, based in Nashville, Tenn., is a professional Christian musician and entertainer. Even though she is a young wife and mother of one child, she and her family stay busy on a national scale presenting the gospel message through dramatic, comedic, and inspirational form.

"First Baptist Church of Kings Mountain invites the community to come and be blessed by this gifted young lady," said Dr. Joel Jenkins, pastor.

Joint Service By Methodists

The Kings Mountain Charge, which is composed of Galilee and St. Paul United Methodist Churches, will be sharing together a joint service during the morning worship hour at 11 a.m. this Sunday. The service will be held at St. Paul, which is located on Cansler Street.

The T.A. Powell Choir from Galilee and the Senior Choir from St. Paul will be providing the music.

Each member has been asked to bring a covered dish. Dinner will be served outside after the benediction, depending on the weather.

On the following Sunday, which will be World Communion Sunday, the Charge Service will be held at Galilee with choirs from both churches providing the music during the 11 a.m. worship hour.

HARRELSON REUNION
Descendants of William Harrelson and two wives, Sarah Salome Buff and Nancy Telitha Cumi Moody Stroupe, will have a family reunion on October 6, 1985, 1 p.m., at Bethlehem United Methodist Church on Highway 182 about seven miles northwest of Cherryville. A covered dish dinner will be enjoyed in the fellowship hall.

ORDAINED
DeWayne Caldwell and Ray Herndon were ordained as Deacons at Bethlehem Baptist Church at the Sunday morning worship services.

Vandals Damage Cars

Vandals poured motor oil into the back seat and used sharp instruments to punch holes in the back seat of a car belonging to Dr. Laurence Muench, 310 Downing Drive, and damaged the car about $100, Kings Mountain Police said this week.

Police are continuing their investigation of several reports of vandalism and break-ins, according to Marty Blanton, secretary to KMPD Chief J.D. Barrett.

James Hollis, Houston, Texas, reported that an assortment of items was stolen from his car while parked at Holiday Inn last week. Property loss was estimated at $150.

Gordon Hersherberger, of Marietta, Ga., also reported to police that his car was ransacked while parked at Holiday Inn and $700 worth of clothing removed.

Vandals ripped parts off a piece of heavy equipment parked in the 500 block of Ridge Street and buried the items. City workers, reporting to work, traced the footprints of the vandals and found the buried parts. The equipment was owned by the City of Kings Mountain.

James Gregory, Crawford Trailer Park, reported to KMPD that someone damaged his car with a grocery cart while he was parked at Harris Teeter. Damages were estimated at $50.

Bessie Hamrick, 110 Blanton St., reported that her house was broken into and jewelry stolen amounting to $1100.

Willis Dennis Huffstetler, Thornburg Drive, reported that a window was broken out of his house and damages amounted to $15.

Alexander Hunsacker, of Winn Dixie, reported that a VCR was rented to a man who failed to return it. He estimated the loss at $410.

Becky Patterson, 206 Juniper St., reported that nothing was taken during a break-in attempt at her house.

Jackie Anderson, 2001 Redwood Circle, reported that the window in her carport was broken out and damaged $40.

Linda Smarr, Apt. 28 Landmark, reported that windows were broken out and damages estimated at $50.

Helen Biddix, of Shelby, reported to KMPD that a pocketbook was removed from her vehicle while it was parked at 812 Grace Street.

John David Faucett, 704 Marion St., reported that firearms valued at $400 were removed from his vehicle parked at Holiday Inn.

Ann Chen, 405 Garrison Dr., reported a lost tag. The number is ASC 1998.
