Huffstetlers Visit Alabama

Mrs. Mylie Huffstetler and six of her eight daughters have returned from a weekend trip to Mobile, Alabama where they visited another daughter, Mrs. Theo Thomas, who is Director of Nursing at University Hospital in Mobile.

The Kings Mountain group included, in addition to Mrs. Huffstetler, Mrs. Sarah Mae McDaniel, Mrs. Doris Hardin, Mrs. Annie Laura Robinson, Mrs. Frances Lail, Mrs. Gloria Gordon and Mrs. Margie Kircus. They made the trip by plane, flying to Mobile on Friday and returning on Monday morning.

The visitors stayed with the Thomas family at their summer home on Dophan Island for the weekend, went by ferry to Gulf Shore for a day and visited Bellingrass Gardens, also visiting with the Thomases at their home in Mobile. A highlight of the trip took place on Sunday in Mobile when John Perry, a member of the Mobile Chamber of Commerce representing the Mayor of Mobile, presented to Mrs. Huffstetler a key to the city of Mobile and presented each of her daughters a key chain with the official seal of Alabama. Mrs. Huffstetler's daughter, Gail Moss, was in school and unable to attend the family get-together.
