Yard Sale Is Saturday

The New Joy of Youth Singers will be sponsoring a yard sale this Saturday from 10 a.m. until 3 p.m. at the home of the group's director, Joy Huffstickler, 323 East Second Ave., in Gastonia.

The 24 singers, ages 4 to 15 will be traveling to Washington, D.C. to sing for President and Mrs. Reagan during the "Pageant of Peace" on December 13th. This trip was arranged through the efforts of 10th District Congressman James T. Broyhill.

The New Joy of Youth Singers was formed in January 1984 and has appeared at many churches, local gospel sings and patriotic celebrations. Most recently the group performed at the Carolina Gospel Fest, sponsored by McDonald's, in Statesville.

In addition to the upcoming Washington Trip, the New Joy of Youth Singers will be helping Santa usher in the Christmas season with an appearance at the Eastridge Mall in Gastonia on November 22nd and at the Oak Tree Plaza on November 30th. The singers represent 15 churches, 11 schools and 8 cities in North and South Carolina.

The group's lead singer, Dodie Ewing, a 14-year-old freshman at Clover High School, won the vocal competition in the Cleveland County Talent Show.
