Harris Attends Meeting

J. Ollie Harris, of the Harris Funeral Home was among those leading funeral directors attending the 68th Annual meeting of National Selected Morticians at the Fairmont Hotel, Dallas, Texas, October 15-18, 1985.

As a member of NSM, Harris met with other leading funeral directors from North America to further foster responsible funeral service in the consumer and public interest, and to meet the bereavement needs of modern day society.

Membership in National Selected Morticians is by invitation only, said the Executive Director, Fred L. Bates. Membership is limited to outstanding privately owned establishments, and is extended only after a thorough evaluation of standards of service, facilities, and a history of exemplary performance in developing an excellent reputation for responsible funeral service.

Each member funeral home in NSM has pledged its adherence to a rigid Code of Good Funeral Practice.

Failure to comply with provisions of this Code of Good Funeral Practice results in termination and forfeiture of membership. NSM firms may be found in key cities across the United States and Canada, with international members throughout the free world.

Open Gate Club Meets

Mrs. Humes Houston entertained the Open Gate Garden Club at the Holiday Inn for the October meeting. Upon arrival the members were served a delicious dessert course.

In the absence of Mrs. J.N. McClure, Mrs. John E. Gamble presented the program entitled "Landscaping for Problem Yards".

Mrs. Eugene McCarter, president, opened the business session with committee reports. Mrs. Wilson Crawford gave a report on the N.C. Board of Directors meeting in High Point at the Radisson Hotel September 16.

Mrs. Tom Trott, Mrs. Humes Houston, Mrs. John Gamble and Mrs. Eugene McCarter attended the District III meeting held at Holiday Inn on Woodlawn in Charlotte, October 1. Many interesting highlights were given by those in attendance. The club received an honor certificate at the district meeting in Charlotte.

After some announcements were made, the meeting was adjourned.

Craft, Bake Sale Scheduled

Kings Mountain Convalescent Center will sponsor a craft and bake sale Nov. 6th as a fund-raising effort to purchase a sewing machine for use in the facility.

The event will be held at 10 a.m. on the grounds, weather permitting, and local citizens are encouraged to donate baked items and craft items to the residents to sell to the general public.

Activity Director Julia Keever said that persons with items to donate should deliver them to the facility prior to Nov. 6th.

Spaghetti Supper Scheduled

The Kings Mountain Rotary Club will sponsor a spaghetti supper on Fri., Nov. 1 at the Kings Mountain High cafeteria prior to the football game between the Mountaineers and East Rutherford.

Supper will be served from 5 until 7:30 p.m. Cost of the tickets are $3.50 each and may be purchased from any Rotarian or at the cafeteria. Children ages five and under may eat free.

The supper provides funds for scholarships for local students. The Kings Mountain Rotary Club has been serving the community since 1958.
