

Paula Hildebrand Wins Health Education Award

Paula Hudson Hildebrand, Health Education Coordinator for Kings Mountain/Shelby City Schools, was presented the Edgar W. Hooks, Jr. Young Professional Award at the opening session of the North Carolina Alliance of Health, Physical Education, Recreation and Dance Convention Nov. 14th.

The second annual award recognizes young members of North Carolina Alliance who have demonstrated outstanding potential for teaching, scholarly productivity and professional service.

Mrs. Hildebrand, 33, received her B.S. in health education in 1974 from UNC-Greensboro and her M.H.D.L. in health education and curriculum supervision in 1981 from UNC-Charlotte. She took additional training at Gardner Webb College and Rutgers University. She graduated from Wakelon High School in 1970.

A member of NCAAHE since 1978, she is serving as state president 1985. She served on the health education leadership conference steering committee for two years and as conference chairperson in 1984. She received the Life Center Educator Appreciation Award from Discovery Place in 1984, the Distinguished Service Award for Charlotte Mecklenburg Schools in 1984, the Sheperd Alumni Award from UNC-G in 1985 and now serves on the Friends of Sheperd governing committee for three years. She is author of "A Teacher's Guide To Love Talk", WTVI 42, Charlotte, 1983, and has won numerous awards for outstanding teaching in health administration.

Jack Hunt On Committee

Representative John J. (Jack) Hunt of Cleveland County has been designated by House Speaker Liston B. Ramsey as a member of the North Carolina Commission on the Bicentennial of the United States Constitution.

Legislation creating the commission gave the Speaker of the House the option of serving or designating another person to serve in his stead. Speaker Ramsey selected Representative Hunt as his designee.

Hunt, a Lattimore dentist, is Speaker Pro Tem of the House. He represents Cleveland, Polk and Rutherford counties in the 48th House District.

The commission will promote and coordinate North Carolina's part in activities commemorating the 200th anniversary of the adoption of the United States Constitution. The Constitution will be 200 years old on September 17, 1987.

Festival Of Lights Set At Gardner-Webb

Gardner-Webb College will hold a Festival of Lights Christmas celebration for the community and college family at the Boiling Springs campus, Thursday, December 5.

The festival will begin at 7 p.m. in the Kathleen Dover Theatre of the Lutz-Yelton Convocation Center with a musical and inspirational service.

"The contribution of the college orchestra, literary and Biblical readings and the combined voices of the college family and the community will make this evening an inspiring evening," said Dr. Craven Williams, college president. "The Festival of Lights will begin the Christmas season for us and we are eager to share the evening with our friends throughout the area."

Pvt. Gash Completes Training

Marine Pvt. Jonathan D. Gash, son of Otis and Doris J. Giles of 1505 North Woods Drive, Kings Mountain, N.C., has completed recruit training at Marine Corps Recruit Depot, Parris Island, S.C.

During the 11 week training cycle, Gash was taught the basics of battlefield survival. He was introduced to the typical daily routine that he will experience during his enlistment and studied the personal and professional standards traditionally exhibited by Marines.

He participated in an active physical conditioning program and gained proficiency in a variety of military skills, including first aid, rifle marksmanship and close order drill. Teamwork and self-discipline were emphasized throughout the training cycle.

A 1985 graduate of Bessemer City High School, Bessemer City, he joined the Marine Corps in August, 1985.
