

REV. JIM CALHOUN

Calhoun To Lead Revival

Rev. Jim Calhoun, who said God delivered him from seven years of drug addiction and healed his legs when he couldn't walk after an automobile accident in 1971, is evangelist for revival services underway at Full Gospel Praise Center, 216 N. Linwood Road.

Services are at 7 p.m. nightly. The public is invited. Full Gospel Praise Center is located across the street from Anvil Knitting Mill.

Rev. Calhoun is formerly of Tustin, Calif. and Gastonia and now lives in the Cherryville area. He tells the story of life as a member of a motorcycle gang and life as a drug addict for seven years and the miraculous healing of his body and soul. "There is no hope for thousands addicted on drugs unless they are delivered by God", he tells audiences all over the country where he has preached.

Praise Center is a non-membership body of believers of all faiths, colors and creeds who come together every Friday, Saturday and Sunday at 7 p.m. and Sunday morning at 11 a.m. for worship services.
