The following objectives were adopted by KMHMF at its organization meeting:

To acquire an existing building, preferably in the central area of downtown, for the establishment of a Kings Mountain Historical Museum.

To collect, preserve and display items and documents relating to the history of the City of Kings Mountain.

To promote community interest in our colorful history among our youth, our new citizens, and among our present generation, and to promote encouragement and better understanding of our town for the future.

To secure, immediately, a safe, centrally located storage area, convenient to the public, for the collection and storage of donated historical items from the residents of the Kings Mountain area until such time that a permanent building is available for our occupancy. Beginning our collection now is of the utmost importance before our elderly begin to die out when their cherished goods and documents may be scattered and lost forever.

President Fryer and the committee have actively sought a location to house items for the new historical museum. The city board of commissioners authorized the use of the old city hall as a temporary office for the foundation.

Nanney Nominated For Award

presented an end of the year program where they shared their knowledge with the student body. Innovative costumes and sets were designed to complement the production.

Also cited by the IPD committee are special projects in physical education and music created by Nanney. The main goal is to provide music and P.E. on a continuous daily basis and to integrate these two areas to each other and to other content areas. As a result, students have participated in joint music and P.E. programs for parents and the student body. A clogging team, the "Bucking Buccaneers," has developed from the P.E. program and has been sponsored by former student teacher Suzie Holtzclaw.

With renewed interest in music, the students have presented the musicals "Cinderella" and "Old MacDonald." Two others, "How the West was Really Won" and "Let George do it," will be presented this year.

Nanney, a past teacher of the year and principal of the year, was also the Terry Sanford Award nominee fifteen years ago while serving as guidance counselor and assistant principal at the junior high school. As this year's nominee, he is justly recognized as an educator who continues to search for the creative and innovative methods in teaching and learning.
