

MRS. JOE HENRY LECROY
(Leslie Dawn Brooks)

Valentine's Day Ceremony Unites Brooks-LeCroy Couple

Temple Baptist Church of Kings Mountain provided the setting Valentine's Day for a 6 p.m. wedding uniting Leslie Dawn Brooks and Joe Henry LeCroy.

Dr. Richard Wilson of Boiling Springs officiated at the double-ring, candlelight ceremony. The music was presented by William McSwain of Kings Mountain.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore her mother's wedding dress of white satin with white pearls enlaid on the front. The bouquet was blue and lavender orchids.

Attending the bride as matron of honor was her sister, Miss Nicole Brooks. She wore a dress of ice blue and carried a candle with bows of ice blue around it.

Bridesmaid was Miss Norma Davis. She wore a dress of French lavender and carried a candle with French lavender bows around it.

Flower girl was Christian Ragland and ringbearer was Chucky Canipe. Jamie Canipe lit the candles.

Charles LeCroy of Gastonia, father of the groom, was best man. Ushers were Jason Davis and Tommy Anderson.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Rebekah Anderson of Kings Mountain and Max Brooks of Shelby. She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Davis of Kings Mountain.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles LeCroy of Gastonia. He is the grandson of Mrs. Carrie LeCroy of Gastonia. He is employed by John Bisanar Electric Company of Gastonia.

The bride's grandmother, Mrs. Mary Davis, and her aunt, Mrs. Jean Toney, entertained after the ceremony at a reception in the church fellowship hall.

The newlyweds' wedding trip was to Wilmington.
