

Bishop Visits Trinity Church

Bishop William Weinhaver paid his official visit to the congregation of Trinity Episcopal Church Sunday afternoon at 4 p.m.

He was assisted in the service by Priest-In-Charge Thomas Hudson. Acolytes were Asa Nord, Jeff Muench, Diane Wilson and Daniel Marlowe.

The congregation celebrated the confirmation of Pam Haskins and Diane Wilson, the reaffirmation of Jan Thompson and the installation of new red carpet in the sanctuary.

After the service, the women of the church entertained at a reception and served shrimp, vegetables and dip, fresh fruit, nuts, mints, cheese, crackers, punch and coffee.

Assisting in serving refreshments were Jo Ann Ware, Esther Muench, Connie Marlowe, Eloise Smith, Nancy Camp, Marlene Smith, Norma Scoggins, Pam Haskins, Nadja Hudson, Jan Thompson and Betsy Wells.

Merger Likely Between KM, County United Ways

a combined campaign for United Way," said Grady Howard, former KM Hospital administrator, who said he does not support a merger of the two campaigns.

Other board members agreed. No vote was taken.

Board members set in motion the 1986-87 campaign in Kings Mountain by re-electing President Mark Wilson, Secretary-Treasurer Marvin Chappell and Campaign Chairman Lavon Strickland.

Harry has maintained that the existence of two fundraising United Way drives puts undue burden on industry since some industry in overlapping areas supports both campaigns. Currently, the Cleveland County United Way raises money everywhere in the county except Kings Mountain city limits. The Kings Mountain campaign, however, considers the Kings Mountain School district its fundraising territory.

Directors object to campaign consolidation because they fear contributions lost from Gaston County industries. "Kings Mountain splits county lines and if we merge we feel we'll lose them" said Wilson. He said this would amount to 10 or 15 percent of its funding from Gaston County industries. Directors said merger would result in decreased participation from Kings Mountain workers and reduction in gifts to much-needed causes and agencies.

A committee composed of Grady Howard, Bill Davis, Ernest Rome, Joel Jenkins, Mark Wilson and Lavon Strickland was approved in December to continue to negotiate with Cleveland County United Way concerning the problem of recruiting the same industries.
