Ricky White Participates In Exercise

Senior Airman Ricky E. White, a member of the 156th Aeromedical Evacuation Flight of the N.C. Air National Guard participated in the annual NATO "Return Of Armed Forces to Germany" (Reforger) exercise. SRA White was attached to the 1st Aeromedical Evacuation Squadron from Pope Air Force Base Fayetteville, N.C. and was deployed to Ramstein Air Base West Germany.

For two weeks Air Force, Air National Guard and Air Force Reserve Aeromedical Evacuation personnel received tough and realistic training under tactical conditions by treating and evacuating by air over 400 "simulated wounded soldiers."

Exercises such as Reforger help to test and evaluate the ability of the Air Force Aeromedical Evacuation System to handle mass casualties in a war situation.

SRA White is the son of Betty and Sesko White of Rural Route 2, Kings Mountain and is a 1984 graduate of Kings Mountain Senior High School.
