

Luncheon Honors Robin

A bridesmaids luncheon on her wedding day March 1 honored Robin Sabucco, bride-elect of Carl Neisler Plonk. Hosting the luncheon for 15 guests was Mrs. Judy Scism.

The pink and creme theme of the wedding was beautifully featured in table decorations and appointments. Pink rosebuds centered the luncheon table which was overlaid with white linen cloths and arranged with pink napkins.

Roast beef with all the trimmings was served. Toasts were made to the bride by the hostess prior to the serving of the meal.

Present as special guests were the bride-elect's mother, Mrs. Flaviano Sabucco, and Mrs. John O. Plonk, mother of the bridegroom-elect.

Schools Spelling Bee Is Friday

Seven Kings Mountain students will vie for the honor of being Kings Mountain's Spelling Champion in a district-wide spelling bee Friday at 1 p.m. at the Board Room of the Superintendent's Office on Parker Street.

They are Shawn Burton, of North School; Chad Huntsinger of West School; Holly Goforth of Grover School; Sherman Witcher of East School; Karen Helms of Central School; Melanie Dixon of Bethware School and Kristin Tyson of Kings Mountain Junior High School.

Shawn Burton, fifth grader at North School, is the son of Mickey and Debra Burton of 1012 Second Street. A Good Citizen, he enjoys playing basketball and collecting cards and is interested in computers. He has participated in spelling bees in both the third and fourth grades. He listed his favorite book as the Encyclopedia Brown series.

Chad Huntsinger, fifth grader at West School, is the son of Gene and Janet Huntsinger of 605 Southwood Drive. He likes all sports and enjoys playing baseball. He was the winner of the 1984-85 spelling bee at West School and is the recipient of the 1985 DAR Award.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Goforth of Route 3, Blacksburg, S.C., Holly Goforth, Grover fifth grader, is a member of the fifth grade basketball team and her hobbies are drawing, painting, reading and basketball. She won second place in the art contest and third place in the computer graphics contest at Grover School and won the recent Grover Bee by spelling correctly the words jaquard and deceitful.

Sherman Witcher, son of Sylvia Witcher of 819 Floyd Street, enjoys football and basketball and plays on a team sponsored by Parker's Amoco. He is a fifth grader at East School.

Karen Helms, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Helms of Route 2, is a sixth grader at Central School and was spelling bee winner at Bethware in 1985, Good Citizen of the Year and was listed on the A honor roll. She also won the Presidential Academic Fitness Award. She enjoys reading, drawing and story writing.

Melanie Heather Dixon, fifth grader at Bethware, is the daughter of Dwight and Kathy Dixon of Route 6. She was 1986 DAR Essay winner at Bethware, and her poem, "North Carolina, A Rich Heritage" published by the N.C. Young Writers Association last year. She enjoys reading and writing stories, ballet, computers and scientific experiments.

Kristin Tyson, eighth grader at KM Junior High, is the daughter of William and Mary Ann Tyson of 904 Sherwood Drive and is a recent winner in the district science fair. She likes to read, draw, sew and babysit.

The winner of the district wide spelling bee advances to the regional Bee sponsored by the Charlotte Observer and a chance to attend the national Bee in Washington, D.C.
